BACON SELLS PAIGE CARS IN TORRANCE

Selects This City In Answer to Growing Demand

In answer to a growing demand for cars of the Paige class in Torrance, C. C. Bacon of 1916 Arlington street has chosen this city as his district in a Paige selling contest to last through the month of September. The salesman who sells the most Paiges in a city of less than 10,000 population will be awarded a new Paige.

"Torrance wants cars of the Paige class and regulation," said Mr. Bacon, who is affiliated with B. M. Torrrens, Redondo and Torrance dealer. "Right now we have seven deals pending with Paige purchasers. I selected Torrance as the best territory available, and expect to give the other Paige salesmen of the country a hot race for first honors."

Mr. Bacon announced that he will represent the company here until a suitable location for a Paige show and sales room can be secured here. "Before long we'll have our own branch here," said Mr. Bacon.

B. M. Torrrens is also agent for the Jewett.

E. M. Hampe Is New Music Co. Manager

R. E. Hampe is the new manager of the Torrance Music company, at the Rappaport building. Mr. Hampe comes to Torrance from Pomona and says he certainly sees great development ahead of this city. Mr. Hampe will make his home here. Mrs. Hampe being expected to arrive here shortly.
