MODERN WOODMEN VISITING PROGRAM

Saturday, September 23 all neighbors who possibly can should arrange to go to California camp. Their team will be here October 11, at the Zone adoption to put on the work; and it is the desire of the Torrance Camp to show them we are alive and appreciate their coming.

Monday, Sept. 25, we will go to Pasadena. Here is a good live camp, and should draw a good crowd of visitors.

Tuesday night at 8 p. m. we will meet at Meinzer's Cafe again for further checking and planning of the selling campaign.

Wednesday night we will meet at 7 p. m. at Legion Hall for brief meeting and then go to Artisia. The meeting at Artisia is a Zone adoption. We will have several candidates from Torrance to take and should have at least 25 neighbors present.

Friday, Sept. 29 is the night we go to Pacific Camp. This date was set over a week on account of the boxing program at the Legion Hall.

The Modern Woodmen had a banquet at Meinzer's Cafe last Tuesday evening. A good many neighbors were at the table and plans were formulated whereby we will be able to have our drawing on or before October 25.

This project is on an absolute concrete basis now, and nothing can stop us from attaining our goal. Next Tuesday there will be another meeting held at Meinzer's Cafe, and you are urged to be there. There is no money solicited at these meetings, you will not be asked for one cent. Your ideas and suggestions are what we want. At the same time show you that we are making a go of this. Come to this meeting and get the direct information as to what is being done and what is wanted, and if you can help then, it will repay you many times over to do so.

M. W. A. Meet Well Attended at Hollywood

Torrance Camp, Modern Woodmen was well represented at Hollywood Tuesday night, twenty-six neighbors making the trip.

Hollywood is the home camp of State Deputy Ben F. Goodheart, who is also Consul of his camp.

Consul Goodheart had the glad hand for every Torrance neighbor, and is going to be a booster for Torrance more than ever.

Hollywood Camp has a fine hall, located at 6900 Hollywood boulevard. They know when to have a good time and how to do it.

Let McKinley Inn
Entertain For You

An innovation that will appeal to those in Torrance who desire to entertain, but who for lack of room in their own homes or the necessary conveniences to handle a large party, is the McKinley Inn on Cota avenue. Here Mrs. Mary McKinley, the proprietor of the well known hostelry is prepared in every way to care for the needs of a party, large or small. Afternoon teas, socials or evening parties, dinner dances, dinner parties, and card parties, can be given at this delightful place with complete satisfaction to the hostess, who may rest assured that nothing will be lacking in appointments or comfort for her guests. With two large rooms conveniently arranged for affairs of this nature and with

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Levy entertained Mrs. Levy's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Berkowitz, of Los Angeles, Sunday.

B. L. Phillips, was relieved of over forty dollars, Sunday, while boarding a car in Long Beach. A large crowd was getting on and the pick-pocket, stepped before, on the steps of the car, placing his left hand across in front of Mr. Phillips, preventing him from entering, and using the right hand to do the work. He didn't discover the theft for some time later, until looking for his car ticket.

Pottenger, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Gourdier, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Fitzhugh, Geo. Proctor, C. A. Paxman and C. B. Hines.

FOR THE DEFENSE.

The Superlative in suspense! The kind of picture that makes you sit hushed and breathless from first to last. The kind you'll tell your friends not to miss.

With the most amazing and daring climax ever conceived. With a popular star, a great cast, and a story thrilling to the last degree.

Ethel Clayton's biggest picture. At Torrance. Theatre, Tuesday, Sept. 26.
