

TORRANCE SCHOOL NOTES

Mr. Bruce A. Findlay, assistant to the city school superintendent, accompanied by Mr. Houston, from the business department, made an official visit to Torrance to inspect the Torrance school and check up the records on equipment, temporary buildings, etc.

They say they are now willing to believe all other reports made about the Torrance oil field. They were also convinced that the demands that Mr. Barnett made for equipment were none too large, and as far as the funds will permit, all such requirements will be taken care of.

Torrance high school athletics have progressed rapidly this year. The local school is again a member of the Bay League. The basketball team, consisting of Clifford Simpson, George Watson, Charles Poole, Don Sautter, Clarence Mills and Harry Kiyomura, has contested with two of its opponents already. The next game has been scheduled with Lomita for Thursday, February 2. The members of 110-pound team are Clifford Grant, Harold Romine, Robert Lessing, Carl Burmaster, Turner McLean, Robert Horner, and Frank Perkins. They will play also on that evening.

The master clock has been delivered to the building and will be installed in a few days. All of the call bells and passing bells between classes will be rung by it.

One day last week the officers for the school paper were elected by the student body. When the votes were counted it was found that the following persons are to have charge: Ethel Bodley, editress; Ione Barnett, assistant editress; Frank Perkins, business manager; Helen Breitholle, sport reporter and athletic manager; Helen Bodley, society editress; Clarence Mills, circulation manager, and the classes elected as their reporters, Helen Tiffany, Junior and Senior; Mildred Richhart, Sophomore; Kathleen Wheaton, Freshman.

WOMAN'S CLUB OF TORRANCE NOTES

Woman's Club of Torrance met with Mrs. Frank Sammons, 1434 Guadalupe avenue, in a social session Monday afternoon, as is their custom on the fifth Monday in the month. On entering the room each lady was presented with a slip of paper bearing her name and asked to wear it during the afternoon. After a time spent in visiting with each other Mrs. Sammons called the club to order and Mrs. Fitzhugh, as master of ceremonies, took charge of the informal program calling upon each one in turn to do their bit, which they did by giving a story, quotation, current event, or music. Light refreshments were served and a silver offering was taken which is used to help the building fund. These social afternoons are doing much to make the members better acquainted with each other. The next regular meeting will be held on February 5th in the Catholic Hall.

Episcopal Guild. Woman's Guild of the Episcopal church will meet with Mrs. James Milburn, 1916 Andree avenue, Friday, February 2, at 2:30 o'clock. All ladies interested in the Episcopal church are invited to attend.

Mr. and Mrs. Cyrus Crosby have moved into their new home, 1437 Guadalupe avenue.

William Curry and son, and Mr. Phalan of Sydney, Nova Scotia, arrived in Torrance Sunday.

Mrs. O. J. Comstock of Buffalo, N. Y., is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Roy Colburn, of Vista Highlands.

Mrs. W. C. Close returned Sunday from Sioux City, Iowa, where she was called by the death of her brother, F. J. Hagan.

Broken Collar Bone Nearly Knitted Up

The first of the week will find Sam Levy sufficiently recovered from his fractured collar bone to again enter his name on the line-up on the football eleven. And we believe he is game enough to do it. For several weeks he has been partial to his right arm, carrying it around in a sling to relieve the strain from the broken collar bone, which was fractured, and his shoulder badly bruised when he was tackled by a huge inland in a recent game on the local field.
