UNION TOOL
CINCHES GAME
IN SIXTH

Seven Runs Are Scored Before Inning Is Finished

With a total of sixteen hits, some of them the long kind, the Union Tool boys captured the second game of the Oil League schedule on the home grounds Sunday afternoon by a score of eleven to seven.

When the Tool boys made seven runs in the sixth inning the fans gave them the game as Ashton was getting stronger at the finish and held the visitors to only one score in the* last three innings.

The hitting of Bouette, Coen, Widener and Anderson were the features and the way they lambasted the horsehide was a shame, Bouette getting four hits out of five trips to the plate.

Following is the score:

"QUIT WORRYING"

Sure der's times when things look gloomy
An' yer feelin' sad an' blue An' it seems that Mr. Trouble is a taggin' close ter you.
Well, it doesn't matter, Honey,
Just you sing a song o' cheer
An' you'll leave ole Trouble habblin'
Way behind yer in de rear.

Trouble like to see yer worry
An' ter know yer feelin' blue
An' ter see yer lost an' puzzled Like yer don't know what ter do.
But when yer starts a smilin'
An' a singing songs o' cheer,
Mr. Trouble goes a hidin'
An' der skies begin ter clear.

Trouble's nothin' but a bugaboo,
A thing that we make real,
An' he wouldn't last a minute
If we didn't let him steal
All de love an' happy sunshine
That is ours to share each day,
An' we find if we start singin'
Trouble goes de other way.
