A CATCHY SIGN

Gilbert & Hansen's real estate office has adopted a clever stunt in advertising. A rotary electric sign may be seen in their front window with revolving cards setting forth in a concise manner the reasons for buying a home or for owning Torrance real estate. Some excellent advice is tersely told. Electric lights flash the glad tidings to pedestrians evenings.

TO LONG BEACH

Hurum E. Reeve called on hardware dealers in Long Beach Monday forenoon, and incidentally put in a good word or two for his home city.

TO SAN FRANCISCO

E. H. Nash, cashier of the Columbia Steel Corporation Llewellyn Mills, was in San Francisco over the week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Kite motored to Escondido Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Paxman and son Carl were guests of friends in Long Beach Sunday.

David Stewart of Redlands was a guest Thursday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ted Wurtz.

Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Acree spent the week-end at the W. R. Downer home in Glendale.

Mrs. C. M. Crane of Los Angeles was a recent house guest of Mr. and Mrs. M. L. May.

Mrs. Mabel Reardon of the New York Store has moved into the Elthea Flat building on 218th street.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Double of South Arlington were week-end guests of Mr. Double's father at Elsinore.

Mrs. R. C. Kite and children leave next Monday for Missouri, where they will visit this summer with Mrs. Kite's parents.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Bowen and Mrs. L. Shearer of Kern Court, were Sunday dinner guests of Rev. and Mrs. F. A. Zeller.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Tomkins and Mr. and Mrs. John Riehart were a jolly party that made a motor tour of the beaches Sunday.

The cards are out for the wedding June 17, of Miss Zella Sitron and Jack Levy, both of Los Angeles. Mr. Levy was formerly in business in Lomita, and is the brother of Sam Levy, of the El Prado Apartments.

Torrance Theatre Has Big Features

The Universal-Jewel photoplay—"The Flirt," which is to be presented at the Torrance Theatre Sunday and Monday, June 3 and 4, is, in the estimation of critics, one of the greatest achievements in the history of the screen. "The Flirt" is Booth Tarkington's masterpiece transferred to the screen with a fidelity and sincerity that makes this picture the greatest drama of American life ever produced.

Tuesday, June 5, a Boy Scout Benefit will be given under auspices of the Business Men's Association. There will be only one show, 7:30 p. m. Doors will be open at 7:00. Secure tickets from Boy Scouts or Members of the Association. Tickets thirty-five cents. Valuable prizes will be given away.

Said to be one of the best pictures produced this season, "The Man Who Saw Tomorrow," a Paramount photoplay starring Thomas Meighan, comes to this theatre Wednesday, June 6. The scenes are laid in the South Seas, New York, India and England. Leatrice Joy, Eva Novak and June Elvidge have the leading feminine roles.

"The Ninety and Nine," which will be shown Thursday and Friday, June 7 and 8, is based on the famous play of that name. The scenes are laid in a Southern California National Forest Reserve, near Mt. San Jacinto. By a curious coincidence the scenes were made during the actual fighting of a monster fire that broke out on Mt. Talkwich. The film has the endorsement of the California State Board of Forestry, and the Forest Service, California District, of the United States Department of Agriculture.

Never has Rodolph Valentino been given such wonderful opportunities as in "The Rajah," coming Saturday, June 9. First as an American college hero, then as a jeweled prince of India, he offers his greatest performance to date. It is a story vibrant with passionate love scenes, dazzling with gorgeous settings and costumes, thrillswept with adventure and mystery. Episode No. 4 of "The Phantom Fortune" will be given on this date.
