

SCHOOL NOTES

At the election held this week by the Student Body, the following officers were elected for the coming school year: President, Albert Isenstein; vice-president, George Watson; secretary, Gwendolyn Miller; treasurer, Ethel Bodley. The following are the members of the T. N. T. staff: Editor-in-Chief George Hannon; assistant editor Katherine Wheaton; business manager, George Mentzner; circulation manager, Frank Perkins; society editor, Lillian Elman.

The game of indoor baseball played between the faculty and the girls' team resulted in a score of 5-35 in favor of the latter.

Work has started on the beautifying of the school grounds.

A geographical film, "A Travelogue of South America," was a part of Wednesday's program for the geography and science classes. The A-T's announce that they will give their play the last week of the term.

The swimming class, composed of about thirty girls from the High School and seventh and eighth grade classes, are progressing wonderfully under the instruction of Ted Combs. Wednesday of this week they had a lesson in life-saving. Next Wednesday a swimming meet will be held at the plunge in Redondo, with the Lomita class as their opponents.

In order to give the P.T. A. an opportunity to co-operate, the Junior-Faculty banquet in honor of the Seniors has been postponed to Friday, June 22.

Miss Cora E. Mabee, fifth grade teacher, will receive her degree of Master of Arts from the University of California, at the commencement exercises to be held next Thursday, June 21, at Exposition Hall, Los Angeles. Miss Mabee was for a year in economics with Dr. Bogardus of Los Angeles. She is without doubt, the most popular teacher at the Torrance school both with faculty and pupils.

H. F. REES CUTS TRIP SHORT

H. F. Rees has returned from his trip East with a greatly refreshed memory as to the vicissitudes of the weather in that neck of the woods. According to Mr. Rees he wouldn't live back there again, if you paid him for it. He likes California and Californians, and he is back to stay.

IDEAL APARTMENTS

Quick action on the part of Miss Clara Johnson was all that saved herself and mother and her aunt from serious injury last Sunday, when a reckless driver cut in on their car, at the corner of Carson and Harbor boulevard. The bumper and fender of the Johnson car were slightly damaged.

The many friends of Clyde G. Parker will be glad to learn that he is improving rapidly, and is expected home in the near future. Mr. Parker is in a hospital at Camp Kearny.

J. Anderson of Los Angeles has joined the Ideal family. Mr. Anderson is employed at the "House of Parr Values."

The friends of Allan ("Red") McNivin were shocked Thursday, when they learned of his death at the home of his aunt, Mrs. Thomas Morris, of Los Angeles. Suddenly taken ill, Monday evening of last week, he was removed to his aunt's home, but more than a passing indisposition. "Red" was gassed while overseas and this left him an easy prey to acute pneumonia. Deceased was twenty-five years of age and an employe at the Union Tool.

His parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dan McNivin, of Sydney, Nova Scotia, are in Boston, Mass., detained there by illness, while on their way to California to visit their son and other relatives here. Funeral services were conducted Tuesday of this week, by Rev. Stewart McCallen, from the Edwards Brothers parlors. Interment was made in the plot of the British Overseas League of Southern California, in the cemetery at Inglewood. Beautiful floral offerings accompanied the friends from Torrance who attended the funeral.

Ron P. Wilson of Portland is the guest of Floyd Parker, arriving in Torrance Wednesday, and if he listens to his chum, he is here to stay.

Mr. and Mrs. Parley Johnson senior, and Messrs. Edward Yantis, senior and junior, motored to San Diego last Sunday, and visited Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Parker.

Floyd Parker is temporarily with the Torrance Hardware Company.

Edward Yantis and son Edward, of Santa Cruz, are house guests of Mr. and Mrs. Johnson. The Yantis think favorably of locating permanently in Southern California.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to thank the many kind friends for their sympathy and floral offerings in our recent bereavement, the death of our nephew, Allan McNivin. MR. AND MRS. TOM MORRIS.

CASTLE APARTMENTS

Dr. Lynd has recovered from his recent illness and is back at his office in the Castle Apartments.
