CLASS MEETING
 Friday night, June 8, the Sigma Chi Rho class of the Evangelical church held a class meeting at the home of Virginia Watson. Plans were made to furnish towels for the "Old People's Home" in Burbank. It was suggested that we make our class room into a recreation room, and each girl is to will a book to help start a library. Ruth McKenzie was elected librarian. A swimming party was planned for the coming month. Later in the evening games were played and delicious refreshments served.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. McCloud of York, Neb., have been the guests of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Neill of Post avenue. Mr. McCloud is cashier of the First National Bank of York, Neb., and is a brother-in-law of Mr. Neill.

PRESS REPRESENTATIVES' LUNCHEON IN LOS ANGELES

Mrs. Frank Sammons, president, and Mrs. James H. Milburn, press representative, of the Woman's Club of Torrance, attended the luncheon and high jinks of the Los Angeles District press representatives last Friday. After paying their respects to the oldest woman's club in existence, a rolling pin, which was then used as a gavel, the guests listened to short talks by the state president, Mrs. Charles Toll; the president of the district of St. Louis, Mrs. Payne; Myra Nye, Ruth McClintock, Caroline Walker, Alma Whittaker and Kate Brew Vaughn, all prominent newspaper women of Los Angeles. Mrs. Grace Frye, district press chairman, presided during the luncheon.

G. N. Turner, accompanied by his daughter, Mrs. Ada Martin, and her son William, left for their home in Victoria, Virginia, after a visit at the home of D. C. Turner of Andrea avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Witherell of Detroit, who have been the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Bressinger, 2020 Arlington avenue, returned to their home Thursday.

Charles Curtiss, Walter C. Bradford, V. G. Benesh, Charles T. Rippey and Fred K. Reynolds made up a fishing party that motored to Sespe, near Fillmore, Sunday.

THANKSGIVING SONG SERVICE

Dear Editor:
 We are all impatiently waiting for oil, or oil royalties, or at least derricks right on Keystone proper. But in the meantime, we have a "fish story" rare and new and we ask you to call Keystone together to sing our feelings of thankfulness to our Heavenly Father for such a kind feast of Redondo fish. One of Keystone's families, together with their Eastern friends, brought home a fine catch of prime fish and told everybody about it; and sent us all (of every creed) a most liberal supply. And they did it with delight even to the little children. Surely, Keystone is getting on fine, even before oil flows. Now, we call the friends, who like myself, got some fish, brought right to their door or a kind welcome to come and help ourselves, to come on Sunday to the Keystone Sunday school and let us sing together praises to God for His goodness to all mankind.
 Keystone Sunday school is held on Harbor boulevard at 11 a. m. But we will meet (creedless) at my place Sunday at 3:00 p. m. to sing. No classes. Bring a song book. Who will offer to play the organ?
 ARTHUR L. PARSONS.

Big Features at Torrance Theatre

Ever since Mother Eve imbedded her pearly teeth in the fabled apple, humanity has pondered from time to time the age-old problem: "What's Wrong With the Women?" Now comes a motion picture that sets for itself the same eternal question and comes pretty close to answering it—at least so far as the present high-powered, flapperescent generation of women is concerned. It is called "What's Wrong With the Women?" and will be shown Sunday, June 17. The story, which was written by Daniel Carson Goodman, is a straightforward narrative dealing with the lives of a smart group of men and women in the gilded strata of big town society. Women and men, too, plunge into the maelstrom of life unrestrained. Extravagance, folly, broken hearts and twisted souls.

Monday and Tuesday nights, June 18 and 19, are American Legion nights. "The Man Without a Country," and "Shoulder Arms" will be shown. An atmospheric prologue precedes the feature.

Spain and the old South, lands of romance, are the background for Bertha M. Clay's novel, "Thorns and Orange Blossoms," coming Wednesday, June 20. It ranks among the outstanding features of the year and comes from the hand of the master director, Louis Gasnier.

Thursday and Friday, June 21 and 22, Mae Murray will be seen in "Jazzmania."

Rain of bullets and a roaring flood fail to thwart the hero of "The Lone Hand," the Universal attraction starring "Hoot" Gibson, showing here Saturday, June 23. One thrilling feature of this picture, directed by Reeves Eason, is the flood scene in the subterranean depths of an abandoned mine in which two men are trapped battling for their lives. Episode six of "The Phantom Fortune," and a comedy, Baby Peggy in "Peg o' the Movies," will also be shown Saturday.

Mrs. Anna Kelly of San Diego and Mrs. N. Courick of Redondo were the guests of Miss Pauline and Mrs. E. A. Kelly Thursday.

Harold King, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. P. King of Marcellina avenue, was one of the graduates at the Redondo High School Friday evening. He read an essay on "The Young Man and the Law."

Mrs. H. F. Rees has received word from Mr. Rees that he reached Washington, D. C., after a pleasant but uneventful journey. Mr. Rees is attending the Shrine convention at the capitol.

WHAT OTHERS SAY
 Torrance, Calif., June 8, 1923.
 Mr. C. P. Roberts, Editor of The Herald.
 Dear Sir:
 I am writing to thank you for the splendid editorial this week on "An Opportunity." It is one of the best sermons preached in Torrance for a long time, and I just felt like saying so to you.
 We are greatly encouraged by our friends and the community generally.
 Again, thank you!
 Cordially yours,
 J. W. MORRIS.

Letters to the Editor

In 1917 the young men of our country believed in their country to the extent of putting on the uniform to fight a common foe, that our country might enjoy peace and prosperity. All of those who went out from our beloved town returned except one. He paid the supreme sacrifice. Our townspeople were grateful and showed their gratitude by erecting a flag pole on a beautiful little plot which is known as Memorial Square. When we see our beautiful national emblem floating from that memorial flag pole it is inspiring. It tells us that ideals are worth more than money. While that plot of ground has never been formally dedicated to the memory of Bert S. Crossland, yet there is a feeling among many that it should be. That spot may be ideally located for a Chamber of Commerce building. But it hardly seems right to the writer to commercialize our finer feelings. We will agree that our Chamber of Commerce is a wonderful organization and is doing a good work for Torrance, but we wonder if they ever looked at this situation from this angle. It appears like substituting dollar marks for the stars in Old Glory.
