"IN THE GREASE"

Notes Gleaned While the Oil Editor Bumps
Around Proven Territory

Julian No. 6, drilled by Tom Cannon, and the outpost well to the south in Lomita, flowed for three days at a 350-barrel rate, but has sanded up.

Federal's Gerner No. 1, at Elgin and Narbonne avenue, is on production, doing about 250 barrels a day. The well was completed at 3870 feet.

Sentinel has landed water string on its well on the Hunter lease, Acacia street and Narbonne avenue.

Universal's Moore No. 8 is standing cemented.

The Santa Fe has located two more wells on the Kettler lease. They are Kettler Nos. 14 and 15. The company is running seven strings on this lease now.

Torrance No. 10 of the C.-C. M. O. is flowing water and oil by heads.

The crew is bailing Torrance No. 20, near Plaza del Amo and Arlington street. The well was plugged back twice after it came in wet.

Chanslor-Canfield's Kettler No. 2 is own 3600 feet.

The Five-O Drilling company's well at Palm and Pennsylvania was brought in several days ago with a flow of 900 barrels. Seeking larger production the crew killed the well. Since then it has been swabbed for two days but has not come back on production. While it was killed Universal's Moore No. 7 across the street was brought in and is flowing about 700 barrels a day.

George F. Getty has located two new wells at Acacia and Pennsylvania.

International Oil company has a new location at Acacia and Walnut streets.

Petroleum Midway has staked out a new location on Elgin street west of Narbonne avenue.

Standard has Felker No. 1 down to 5150 feet, drilling in dark brown sandy shale.

Standard's Kettler No. 1 is standing cemented at 3668 feet.

Interstate No. 1 and Interstate No. 2, both Standard wells, are down better than 1500 feet.

Marble No. 1 of the Standard Oil company is down 11 feet. Marble Nos. 2 and 3 are rigging up.

THRIFT OR FOOLISHNESS?

NATIONAL THRIFT WEEK
JAN. 17 TO 23

A foolish man spends his money and then tells all his friends about it. The Thrifty man saves his money and then his friends tell the world about it. The moral is he who saves will have plenty of laughs for the last.
