Seaboard Oil Co.
Oil Pipe Line to Harbor Finished

The Seaboard Petroleum corporation has completed its Torrance-to-Watson-to-Wilmington pipe line, it is announced by officials. The line was built from Torrance to Watson on the right of way acquired from the White Star interests through a leasing arrangement, and is designed to serve the Seaboard refinery at Wilmington with Torrance production. The line is seven miles long, of six-inch pipe and cost about $75,000, it is said.

The new line, together with the proposed line to be started immediately from the Seaboard's Wilmington refinery to its loading station on Mormon island will bring the total length of trunk, gathering and distributing lines controlled by Seaboard Petroleum to more than sixty miles. Lines already connect the Vernon refinery, formerly operated by the Rosenberg Petroleum corporation, with the Santa Fe Springs and Signal Hill fields, and when connections are made in the Torrance line the Seaboard will be able to connect with any well in the three great fields within two hours' notice.

The bank construction program at Wilmington is nearing completion. Two 55,000-barrel tanks, and two 80,000-barrel tanks are completed and two more 80,000-barrel tanks are under construction and will be finished by the end of the month. When these are finished the Wilmington tank farm will be able to handle 500,000 barrels of crude oil at a time.

Western Division Opposes Tax-Free Bonds, Securities

The western division of the United States Chamber of Commerce, a body thoroughly representative of business, agriculture and commerce in the west, at its recent meeting in San Francisco took a decided stand on the tax question by adopting the following resolution:

"The western division of the United States Chamber of Commerce is opposed to exemption from taxation of property used in a purely commercial business conducted by federal, state or municipal government, as distinguished from federal, state or municipal service necessary to the public health and safety, and to the exemption from taxation of income derived from securities issued for the financing of such enterprises, and expresses its conviction that competition and the use of individual incentive are vital to the prosperity of the nation, and that the further extension of government into commercial enterprises would retard business growth and expansion and be detrimental to the commercial and social welfare of the nation."

ODDITIES In the News

ROBINSON, Kan.—Mrs. Frank Scott of Highland returned from Canada with her 13 children, and they all rode on one first-class ticket. At Omaha the conductor made vigorous protest. "Madam, you cannot carry a whole Sunday school along on one ticket," he said, "and you will have to pay for those over 5 years of age. Mrs. Scott dug down in her valise and brought out the family Bible, in which was recorded the names and ages of each of the 13 children. The conductor had to give in. The mother and the children, occupying five double seats, paid only one fare. The 13 of them living, and all of them are boys. They hold the record for trip-lets—five sets to their credit—and two sets of twins. All of the 13 boys who are living are under 5 years of age. The names and ages of the children are: Ashball, Archer and Austin, triplets, 4 1/2 years old; Arthur and Arnold, twins, 3 1/2; Alla, Almon and Alon, triplets, 2 1/2; Abers, Albion and acolph, triplets, 18 months. And her husband is only one year her senior.

ATLANTA, Ga.—"The ancient adage, 'The cat will get your tongue,' was nearly proven here on a recent afternoon. The only difference was that a dog instead of a cat got the tongue. 'Principles in the unfortunate affair were 6-year-old James Bowers and his pet canine.

The youngster was playing with his dog at the time, and in making a face at the dog, stuck out his tongue. Enraged, the dog leaped at the child, biting nearly half of his tongue off. The little boy is a patient at Grady hospital.

HIAWATHA, Kan.—William Whistler of Morrill, near here, lives up to his name. He is a professional whistler.

Whistler was badly needed to aid in a musical program at Morrill. He re-nearched with the orchestra, promised he would be on hand unless "something dreadful" happened. The "dreadful" thing that kept him away was this:

When Whistler was dressed and ready to go, his false teeth fell to the floor and broke squarely in two.

PATERSON, N. J.—Another operation will be performed by Dr. Edward Morgan, eye specialist, in an effort to restore the sight of Alfred Lemahowitz, blind boy, of Lyndhurst. Some months ago he grafted a pig's cornea to the youth's right eye. The youngster consented to give the physician another chance. This time the entire eye of a pig will be inserted.

GRANITE, N. H.—Rev. Samuel A. Jones, 79, a retired clergyman, was round frozen to death in front of the stove of his lonely home here. In a hallway near by his housekeeper, Mrs. Saran Wentworth, 37, was found unconscious and dying from cold. Physicians said she could not live. From an upper window fluttered a tiny bit of white cloth, a vain signal set for help sent by Mrs. Wentworth before she collapsed.

DOVER, N. H.—Despondent over inability to figure out his income tax, Morris W. Jenkins, 53, a prosperous farmer, committed suicide by shooting himself twice with a shotgun in his house in Medbury.

While he was in the White House Abraham Lincoln was shaved with a razor formerly owned by Gen. Robert E. Lee, according to Joseph Christian, Lincoln's valet-coachman.

Canyon Trip Enjoyed By Business Men

As hiking in the mountains is good for fat people to work off extra poundage and good for delicate folks to build them up a mixture of both fat and lean, business men of Torrance journeyed to Fish canyon Saturday night and were the guests of Fred Hassenmier in his mountain cabin in the canyon. Hiking and rag-time music on the phonograph was greatly enjoyed by the party. The only error that occurred was charging the cook, who, being new in the kitchen, used powdered sugar in mixing the gravy instead of flour.

The members of the party were as follows: Hurum Roeve, John Fess, C. M. MacKenzie, George Parr, Grover Whyte, Jack Hansen, Arthur Finster, Harvel Gutfenfelder, and Charles Ray.
