THE DAY I FOUND GOD

'Twas Spring and the birds were singing.

The day that I found God,
It was down in the lower meadow
While plowin' up the sod;
I said "how good it is to live
With Nature in the Spring,"
And something there inside of me,
With joy began to sing.

The flowers lifted up their heads
And seemed to smile to me,
The pretty blossoms on the trees
Were sure a sight to see;
The air was full of music
The day that I found God,
'Twas down in the lower meadow
While plowin' up the sod.

It's hard to tell just how I felt
I started in to sing,
And all the World just seemed in tune
There was love in everything;
I know I stopped and said aloud,
"I'm sure that I've found God,"
It was down in the lower meadow
While plowin' up the sod.

I knew He was no person,
But a Spirit, kind and good,
And I knew I'd find Him close within
When once I understood,
And there beneath a smiling sky,
I stood on the fresh turned sod,
And said "how good it is to live,
With such a Friend as God."

'Twas many years ago my Son,
But seems like yesterday,
For life has been so good to me
I've been blessed in every way.
'Twas down in the lower meadow
While plowin' up the sod,
That love came singing in my heart,
Then I knew I had found God.
