Methodist Church

Dr. Morris will give the last of the Sunday night talks on "Who's Who in America" next Sunday evening. This last address will be on "American Ideals," taken from the 12th chapter of Romans. If any more people come than were present last Sunday evening you better come early to get a seat. A little surprise is awaiting the folks this time, but don't say anything about it.

The Sunday morning sermon will be on "The Good Shepherd." New members will be received, and the ordinance of baptism administered to adults and children if desired.

Christian Church

American Legion hall. W. T. Adams, pastor; Scott Ludlow, superintendent of Bible school.

The services last Sunday were of a high order. Rev. Lingenfelter preached a splendid sermon in the morning, which all enjoyed, and then the Odd Fellows' services in the evening were great. There were more than eighty Odd Fellows and Rebekahs at the services in the evening. The choir gave a fine musical program, which all seemed to enjoy.

But we should look forward to the approach of another Lord's Day with increasing joy. Every member of the Christian church should hear the sermon next Sunday morning on "A Vision of Victory." Come in time for the Sunday school, and then don't forget to come back for the evening services.

Sunday school at 9:45 a.m. Communion and sermon at 11 a.m. Preaching services at 7:30 p.m. Bible study every Thursday evening.

Central Evangelical Church

You ought to get into the Sunday school. Always room for one more, for we are using three rooms at the parsonage for classes. The new unit will soon be ready for the primary department, but in the meantime all will be taken care of, for we have an excellent faculty of teachers and officers. The orchestra and the young ladies' choir add a lot to the interest of the school.

The C. E. meets Sunday evening at 6:45. The state convention will be held at Santa Monica, beginning next Friday, and quite a number of the young people will attend.

The orchestra rehearses Tuesday evening; the choir meets on Thursday evening.

Mothers' Day comes a week from Sunday, May 11. Central church is planning a good program for the occasion. The choir, under Miss Rothleder, is planning some extra good music. Plan now to bring your mother or some one else's mother to the service.
