CHRISTIAN Meeting at American Legion hall. Rev. W. T. Adams, Pastor. Sunday school, 9:45 a.m. Bible school starts at 9:45 sharp. Be there on time and see and hear those interesting chalk talks. Morning service, 11 o'clock. Evening service, 7:45 o'clock. Bible study and prayer service Thursday evening.

Sunday, June 1, is Children's Day. Perhaps because it is the springtime of the year, we all feel younger and we hear the children speak and sing; and this is a day when the children, young and old, give to the many mission fields throughout the world. The gifts of money are used in sending the message of the Christ to the children of other lands who do not know Him. What better gift can we give to them than a knowledge of the Master Teacher of all time? There will be a short program by the children, and would especially urge all classes to be present, as we are striving for a new high attendance record. The church service is especially important this Sunday, and would urge all members of the church to make a sacrifice to be present. We are expecting A. C. Smith of the California state board for both services, and his message will be one you will not want to miss.

METHODIST Rev. J. Walter Morris, D.D., Pastor. Sunday school, 9:45 a.m. Well organized Sunday school; classes for everybody. Morning service, 11 o'clock. Sermon, and special music by a large chorus choir. Service closes at 12 o'clock. Evening service, 7:30 o'clock. Dr. Morris will speak on "The Invisible Empire." There will be an extra special service. Epworth league at 6:45 p.m. Wednesday evening, prayer and Bible study. Choir meeting Friday evening. Irving G. Ulmer, leader of the great orchestra of the First church, Los Angeles, and the whole Ulmer family will assist in the musical program Sunday evening. We rather expect some visitors Sunday night, and seating will be provided for some four hundred people.

FIRST BAPTIST J. Whitfield Green, Pastor. Sunday school, 9:45 a.m. The best place on earth to come and bring the children. Morning service, 11 o'clock. Subject, "The Blood of Christ That Atoned for Sin." Evening service, 7:30 o'clock. Subject, "The God of Liberty." B. Y. P. U., 8:45 p.m. Prayer meeting Wednesday, 7:30 p.m. Mr. Green will preach a patriotic sermon in the evening. Don't fail to hear this. It will give you something to think about. Everybody welcome at the home church.

CENTRAL EVANGELICAL Francis A. Zeller, Pastor. Sunday school, 9:45 a.m. Morning service, 11 o'clock. Text, "He that ruleth his spirit is greater than he that taketh a city." Evening service, 7:30 o'clock. Theme, "God's Three Tests to Citizenship in the Invisible Empire." Christian Endeavor meets at 6:45 p.m. Subject, "How Jesus Faced Duty." Midweek service on Thursday evening.

Orchestra practice Tuesday evening. Choir rehearsal Thursday evening. The big choir, under Miss Rothleder's direction, will sing morning and evening. The men's quartet, composed of Messrs. Curtis, Neelands, Bell and Lessing, will sing at both services.

The evening service is a surprise service. You will have to come early or stand up.

EPISCOPAL Christ Mission. Rev. T. P. Swift in charge. Services are held, for the present, at the residence of W. T. Klusman, 2017 Carson street. Morning service, 9 o'clock. Holy communion next Sunday at 9 a.m. We will be glad to have the names of any Episcopalians who are not affiliated with the mission. Telephone 39.

LOMITA GOSPEL MISSION Rev. James Elliot, Pastor. Children's song service, 9:30 a.m. Sunday school, 9:45 a.m. Mrs. Tulp, superintendent. Morning service, 11 o'clock. Young people's meeting, 6:30 p.m. Prayer meeting Thursday, 7:30 p.m. Our Sunday school was well attended last Sunday, and much interest was shown by all present. The subject of the morning sermon was "The Witness of the Holy Spirit." In the evening we had a fine sermon by our pastor, Mr. Elliot, on "The Prayer Life." Anyone hungering for real old-time gospel sermons will get them at our Gospel Mission. All are welcome.

LOMITA COMMUNITY CHURCH E. E. Clark, Pastor. Sunday school, 9:45 a.m. Robert McCartney, superintendent. Classes for all ages, from the kindergarten to the Bible class. Morning service, 11 o'clock. Subject, "The Unused Forces of the Church." Evening service, 7:30 o'clock. Subject, "Peace or War"—a patriotic service. Christian Endeavor prayer meeting, 6:30 p.m. Topic, "How Jesus Faced Duty." Leader, Merle Richey. Tuesday, 7:30 p.m., school of evangelism, conducted by Rev. Joseph P. Hicks. To this service all Christian people are cordially invited. Children's Day will be observed Sunday, June 8, at 10:30 a.m. There will be no Sunday school session. The church and Sunday school will meet together for this service. An interesting program of songs, recitations and motion songs is being prepared. An offering will be received for Sunday school missions.

LOMITA COMMUNITY CHURCH. The Christian Endeavor society of this church, under the direction of Mrs. E. W. Smith and Mrs. Kate Dale, gave an interesting missionary program last Sunday evening. Erwin Patterson, the president, presided and read the scriptures. Others on the program were as follows: Vocal solo, Katherine Hunter; "Missions in the South Seas," Rachel Cotton; "Hospital and School Work in Cuba," Dawson Trotman; vocal duet, Rachel and Louise Cotton; a pageant, "The Awakening of Mexico"—Betty Wheeler, Winnie Wheeler, Lorna Thistle, Laura Stanton, Iris Oliver, Katherine Hunter, Ernest Oliver, Harold Hammack; Spanish Quartet—Hazel Johnson, Helen McDougall, Betty Wheeler, Winnie Wheeler. A large congregation enjoyed the service.

In the morning the pastor spoke on the subject, "The Loss of Spiritual Power," from the text: "He knew not that the Lord had departed from him." The offertory solo, "Art Thou Weary, Art Thou Languid?" was sung by Mrs. Willacy. Rehearsals are being held in preparation for the Children's Day celebration. The service will be held Sunday, June 8, at 10:30 a.m., in order that parents and children may be present together. All the members of the cradle roll, the primary, junior, intermediate, senior, Bible class and home departments are cordially invited and urged to be present. Everybody is invited to come and enjoy the service.

MISS MCKENZIE HONORED Miss Grace McKenzie was given a surprise miscellaneous shower Wednesday evening at her home on Andree avenue. "Bunco" furnished diversion for the evening.
