COMING MOVIE ATTRACTIONS

TORRANCE THEATRE

Incontestably a screen masterpiece, George Fitzmaurice's Paramount production, "The Cheat," presenting the famous star, Pola Negri, in the finest role of her picture career, will be the feature attraction at the Torrance theatre for two days, beginning Tuesday, June 3. Jack Holt, Paramount star, is featured as leading man, while Charles de Roche, the popular French screen star, now a member of the Paramount stock company, heads the supporting cast. It is one of the few pictures in which this celebrated star has appeared that has a happy ending. The production is by George Fitzmaurice, and Ouida Bergere wrote the scenario. Jack Holt plays the featured role of a husband in the picture. Charles de Roche, celebrated French actor, is in the support as a white man crook posing as an East Indian prince.

Always a William S. Hart production has been guarantee of a supporting cast worthy of the star. "Singer Jim McKee," Hart's latest production for Paramount, which will be the feature at the Torrance theatre next Thursday and Friday, does not disappoint in this, or in fact any respect. The supporting cast includes several old Hart favorites, who have established their popularity in his previous pictures. One of these is Bert Sprotte, a finished actor of the old Shakespearean school, who has become one of the leading character actors in pictures. Sprotte does some of the best work of his career in this picture in a character role ideally fitted to him.

LOMITA THEATRE

For several days during the making of "Eyes of the Forest," which opens Tuesday and Friday, does not disappoint in this, or in fact any respect. The picture, was walking around with one of the finest "shiners"—or black eyes, if you like—that has been seen in Hollywood in ages. The manner in which he acquired the optical decoration handed even Tom a laugh. It was during a free-for-all fight that was staged in "Eyes of the Forest." Just before the fray Mix addressed his adversaries, who included several "extras." What he said was this:

"I will give ten dollars to any man who blacks my eye. I want to make this fight a real thing. Here's your chance to wade in and get some extra money."

Tom got what he was looking for, and a mild-mannered young man collected the ten-spot.

"That young fellow is mighty quick," Tom admitted; "so quick I didn't see him coming. And he's a little fellow, too."

Friday night Tom went to see the weekly bouts at a Los Angeles club. When the fighters in the final bout stepped into the ring Mix looked, rubbed his eyes and looked again.

"No wonder I got a black eye," he mused, feeling the injured optic. "That fellow in the green tights is the guy who hit me." It was Jack Joseph, well known in the middle west as a contender for the lightweight title.

LITTLE-HICKMAN

Mrs. Emily M. Little of Long Beach and Hiram E. Hickman of Gunnison, Colo., were married Saturday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Splittstoesser of Hill street, in the presence of about twenty-five friends, by Rev. E. E. Clark.

Mr. and Mrs. G. K. Thiessen of Long Beach attended the bridal couple, who entered to the strains of Lohengrin's wedding march played by Miss Irene Splittstoesser.

Many beautiful gifts were received by the happy couple. A delicious supper was served by Mrs. Splittstoesser.

Mr. and Mrs. Hickman will remain in Long Beach for a few weeks, after which they will go to Mr. Hickman's home in Gunnison, Colo., for an indefinite stay.

Pretty Parade At Elementary School Enjoyed

An appreciative audience was present last Friday at the May festival held at the elementary school.

A parade was a feature of the day, in which five groups of gaily decorated kiddies and vehicles took part.

In group one, a clown with bicycle decorated in yellow won the blue ribbon, the red ribbon was awarded a bicycle which was a mass of nasturtiums, while the white ribbon was given the owner of a purple and white bicycle.

Group two consisted of decorated vehicles other than bicycles, and the ribbons were awarded the Red Cross ambulance, the "Covered Wagon," and "Menagerie" car.

Decorated doll buggies formed the third group.

The black dancing girl won the blue ribbon for the prettiest costume; the red ribbon went to the girl in pink, and the Gypsy girl won the white ribbon.

In the fifth group, most original costumes, the ribbons were awarded the Suffragette, Brownie and Fairy and the Dutch Maid.

The parade was followed by an excellent program.

Scout Commissioner Ellis P. Moore gave an interesting and appropriate talk.

TRUSTEES

The board instructed the city attorney to take steps necessary for formation of a district of the city of Torrance so that records of births and deaths shall be filed with the city clerk here. At present Torrance vital statistics are recorded at Redondo. The request for formation of a district here came in a letter from Dr. J. S. Lancaster.

At the request of Trustee Willis M. Brooks, chairman of the finance committee, the board decided to meet in committee Thursday night to con-
