COMING MOVIE ATTRACTIONS

Heralded as "the greatest historical classic on the screen" with romance and adventure garbed in the colorful atmosphere of the Twelfth century, "Richard, the Lion-Hearted," an Allied Producers and Distributors Corporation release, will be shown at the Torrance theatre on Saturday.

Based on "The Tallman," Sir Walter Scott's story so familiar to book lovers the world over, "Richard, the Lion-Hearted" has a two-point appeal. For those who seek entertainment alone, it unfolds a story of compelling interest, in lavish settings that are a source of constant delight. For students of history or literature, it is a faithful representation of the life of the period in which it was laid. In its many beautiful scenes there is a wealth of antiques for which the museums of two continents were drawn upon.

One of the best possible recommendations for Richard Walton Tully's screen dramatization of Rex Beach's "Howling Gold," the First National picture which will show at the Torrance theatre Sunday and Monday, is the fact that the leading feminine role is in the hands of Anna Q. Nilsson. Add to that fact the presence of Milton Sills in the leading male characterization and success is assured.

Miss Nilsson is recognized as one of the most capable, as well as most beautiful players of the screen. She has appeared in so many greatly successful photoplays that an enumeration is impossible, and her popularity is ever on the up-grade. She is recognized in Hollywood as one of the most conscientious performers of the studios, and is credited with being just about the best "trouser" of them all.

LEGION NEWS FOR BUDDIES

The new department adjutant of the American Legion, James K. Flisk who succeeds Morgan Keaton, recently resigned to go into business, hails from a family of fighters being the son of Robert E. Flisk, a Civil War veteran, a captain in the 16th New York Volunteers.

Adjutant Flisk at the beginning of the World War entered the service and was commissioned a 1st lieutenant in the Signal corps and detailed to the Personnel section and stationed in Washington. He was later transferred to the Flying section and qualified as a pilot in 1918. When the armistice was signed he was preparing to go overseas.

The Rehabilitation Committee is preparing a resolution to take care of all the defects now seen in the recently passed Reed-Johnson bill.

It is being prepared by A. E. Graupner, chairman of the Rehabilitation Committee for the state of California as well as for the 12th district.

The Americanization Committee is preparing for a number of resolutions on Americanization and Immigration. One of the most important will be a resolution to close our borders against possible smuggling of immigrants through as a result of the recently passed Immigration law.

SACRAMENTO, Calif., June 26.—The California State Veterans Welfare Board is purchasing homes for veterans of the World War at the rate of two a day according to a report recently sent to the State Department Headquarters of the American Legion.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Williams of Warren, O., arrived Wednesday evening and are guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Barringer. Mrs. Williams and Mr. Barringer are sister and brother-in-law of Mrs. Williams.

REVIEW YEAR'S ACTIVITIES AT WOMAN'S CLUB MEETING

By PHOEBE MILBURN

The annual luncheon of the Woman's Club of Torrance was held Thursday at 12:30 in the new Guild hall of the Central Evangelical church.

The Ladies' Guild of the church, under the direction of Mrs. William Laven, served the luncheon, which was delicious. High school girls acted as waitresses and served salad, escalloped potatoes, rolls, coffee, ice cream and cake.

About 120 club women were seated at the four long tables, made beautiful by the decoration committee. Mrs. R. R. Smith, the chairman, presiding over the event, presided in making the hand-painted dolls, dressed in blue and yellow crepe paper, which marked the places at the table.

Dainty lace paper doilies edged with blue and yellow crepe paper under each slab and under plates. Bowls of yellow flowers and blue candles in blue holders completed the table decorations.

Club Songs After the singing of "America the Beautiful" and an invocation by Mrs. E. A. Zoller, all were seated, the incoming and outgoing officers with the club guests—Mrs. E. M. Lazard, federation chairman of emblems; Mrs. Frank Sammons, past president of the club, now residing in Los Angeles; Mrs. Hills of Lomita, representing the Woman's Club of Redondo, and Miss Helen Bennett of Los Angeles.

After what seemed a very short time, in which the good things were enjoyed, Mrs. J. A. Young, presiding, called upon the chairmen of the various departments to report.

Mrs. W. M. Brooks, program chairman, reported on the various programs of the past year and the low cost at which the club had obtained the different speakers.

67 New Members Mrs. Parks, chairman of membership, reported that the club had gained 67 new members since January, 1924, 45 of these being gained during the membership drive.

During the membership drive Mrs. F. H. Clark's team won over Mrs. A. P. Stevenson's team by obtaining one more member.

Mrs. Stenholder, chairman of ways and means, gave a partial report showing the committee has been active and promised to have a complete report ready at the beginning of the club year.

Mrs. J. H. Milburn, historian, stated that the club had taken part in many activities in the town and district, and in proof of this presented the book of clippings she has been making for the club.

Mrs. Winifred Barnard, press chairman, being absent, Mrs. Milburn gave a brief report on the publicity the club had gained since March, 1923, which amounted to 1030 inches, which, roughly estimated, would have cost the club one dollar an inch, or $1030. This publicity was given by The Torrance Herald, Lomita News, San Pedro, Long Beach, Redondo, Hermosa, and all the Los Angeles papers, so that the name of the Woman's Club of Torrance is well known in the Southland.

Mrs. C. H. Curtiss stated that special music had been prepared for every meeting, both by local and out-of-town talent.

Mrs. Forrest J. Young, child welfare chairman, reported on the Mothers' Educational Center and the good work it has done in Torrance, citing several individual cases.

Mrs. Young expressed her thanks to the Chamber of Commerce, the high school, Huron Reeve, P. T. A. and Woman's Club for their support of this movement.

Mrs. Neelander read the minutes of the last meeting as the secretary's report.

Mrs. Gilbert, in giving her report as treasurer, showed the treasury in good condition at the close of the year.

In making her report as motion picture chairman, Mrs. Collins stated that Torrance should be congratulated on her moving picture theatre, as it is doing the best work of all in showing the reviewed pictures and following the policies of this department of the federation.

Mrs. Frank Miller, chairman of home economy, stated that during the biennial when the home economics section served tea to the visitors, their part in the entertainment, there were more ladies from Torrance assisting than from any other club.

Mrs. Dolley, conservation chairman, reported on the federation meetings and the bird club that had been started in the school.

Mrs. Gilbert reported on the biennial. Mrs. Hills of the Redondo club spoke a few words of greeting; Mrs. T. J. Foley, another member of the same club, spoke on the work of the Junior Auxiliary.

Praises Mrs. Smith Mrs. Sammons spoke of the beautiful luncheon and the love and painstaking work that went into the making of the beautiful favors. In speaking of returning Torrance Mrs. Sammons said that it is coming home, although another now turns in at the familiar path and opens the door with the latch key. In order to be of lasting good there must be a back of every material success there must be an ideal. The ideal of the club for the next year is its club house. The building up of the club spirit includes loyalty, service and love. In closing Mrs. Sammons left with the club motto: "In non-essentials, tolerance; in essentials, unity; and in all things, love."

Mrs. Stock, the first president of the club, was presented with a life membership and a corsage on behalf of Mrs. J. A. Young.

Mrs. Stock, in thanking the club for their gift, told of the origin of the club as a neighborhood sewing club.

Mrs. R. R. Smith, who has been untiring in giving of her time and talent in decorating the Legion hall for the club dance and the tables for the annual luncheon, was presented with a bouquet of flowers as a token of appreciation of her beautiful work for the club.

Mrs. Henderson, chairman of the building committee, reported on the progress of the clubhouse plans, briefly sketching the ideals that lay before the founder of Torrance when he read the beautiful city that should one day rise upon this spot. Mr. Torrance never saw bare lots when he came to Torrance, but in his faith he always beheld his ideal city.

Said Mrs. Henderson: "When a time of depression struck the town we have a fortunate fortune in the treasury of the club which in order that the interest and taxes might be paid, and in this he was sustained and supported by our late beloved citizen, Judge Post.

"We have a vision of a clubhouse built on a sixty-acre spot where we may forget the ills of our daily life and build for better things. We must have sufficient courage, we must have sufficient faith, we must have sufficient loyalty and sufficient love to forget self and perfect the achievement of our ideals."

Mrs. Robert J. Burdette of Pasadena, who spoke to the club at the session later, gave a few words of greeting.

The club then adjourned to the Evangelical church for the installation of the new officers, and the program.

Mrs. Robert J. Burdette of Pasadena installed the new officers of the Woman's Club Thursday afternoon at the meeting held in the Central Evangelical church.

There was a large number of the members present, the church being filled.

Those to be installed were presented to Mrs. Burdette in a body, and then with a few impressive words Mrs. Burdette installed each officer, telling how she could help her club and its progress by the proper fulfilling of her duties in the office to which she had been elected, and telling the club how best they could help these same officers, and asking them to be loyal to the club and to have chosen, although they may not always quite agree, as it is hard for one body of women to make another body of women see as they do.

After the installation Mrs. J. A. Young spoke a few words of farewell, and retired from her office as president, leaving Mrs. J. M. Fitzhugh, the new president, to begin the duties of her new office.

Mrs. Fitzhugh presented Mrs. Burdette to the club, who gave a very inspiring and helpful talk on club matters.

Mrs. Burdette stated at the beginning of her talk that she had come with no set message, as she was very much exhausted after the biennial, and only the promise made to an old friend a long time ago had brought her to Torrance, the clubs of America. E. Miss Helen Bennett of the Women's Symphony Orchestra, accompanied the club with three violin numbers—"Minuet" in G (Bethoven), "Souvenir" (Drda), and "Oriental" (Cui)—during the afternoon.

The club then adjourned until the beginning of the new club year, with Mrs. Burdette's parting words ringing in their ears: "Good-bye, girls; have a good time."

The new officers installed are: president, Mrs. J. M. Fitzhugh; vice-president, Mrs. George Peckham; secretary, Mrs. Joseph Stone; third vice-president, Mrs. W. J. Neelands; recording secretary; Mrs. James H. Milburn; corresponding secretary; Mrs. W. H. Gilbert; auditor; and Mrs. Isabel E. Henderson, director. The other two directors, Mrs. P. G. Briny and Mrs. A. P. Stevenson, were unable to be present.

FASHIONS A Smart White Suit Decked in Red

By Mme. Lisbeth. Black and white, red and white—these you must wear it seems, no matter whether you are solid red or black trimmed with white or vice versa—it's the combination.

Here illustrated is a smart white suit that has emerald and white tones of red. The little white felt hat has a long tassel design of red flowers in a light beige ribbon down the front. The suit is buttoned down the front. The blouse has a long tassel design of red flowers in a light beige ribbon down the front. The suit is buttoned down the front. The current number of "Vogue" warns ladies to look well with luggage before a summer trip. It seems it is inadvisable to start on a journey with slippish luggage as it would be an attention was paid to the clothing. By their luggage shall you know them.
