

Crucified!

BUT REFUSE TO DIE!

Folks, last Monday night the Board of Trustees of Torrance refused to grant me a permit to build a fine attractive looking open air market in this city. I could afford to buy in larger quantities and give you the benefit of it. But they issued one to an outsider. But I will forget about it for the time being. I now have an agreement with the wholesaler and am going to sell down to the rocks until the nether regions freeze over. Note these Prices!

COMING MOVIE ATTRACTIONS

Hoot Gibson, long since firmly established as one of the real comedians of screenland, has come now to convince that dangerously kidding automobiles or wicker-plunging bronchos are not necessary to enable him to entertain, nor situations of impending peril from others to enable him to convulse his spectators with laughter that comes from the natural subtleties of the finished comedian.

In "40 Horse Hawkins" Gibson production to be shown at the Torrance theatre Saturday only. Hoot is not placed in a single situation of danger, yet the story is such as to allow intense interest at every turn. Hoot does all sorts of things which ordinarily might seem unexciting tasks, like being the hotel porter, bus driver, cook and waiter, stage manager and property man in a little theatre.

Hoot is the chief toto of every thing about the village, especially all trades he sees the way of a barnstorming crew which comes to thrill with melodrama.

LEAVE FOR NORTH

Miss Ida Hensch of Riverdale, who has spent the past few weeks in and about Torrance, started home Tuesday morning. She was accompanied on the journey by Mrs. W. C. Haydon and her aunt, Mrs. Agnes Gammell, of 2928 Arlington avenue. They will follow the coast to Pismo Beach and then take the Parkfield grade road to Coalinga and Fresno.

TORRANCE NOTES
