A nine-pound boy arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Stassin, 1535 Marcelina, Saturday, Nov. 1.

Mr. and Mrs. Forest J. Young and family were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Stone at Athens Tuesday evening. The evening was passed in listening to the election returns over the radio.

A fine son arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Crowell, Mowry Court, recently.

TOWNE TALKE
"Just for Fun"
By RAS BERRY

The boys were talking about prosperity coming back with Coolidge elected. Well says Geo. Proctor they had no sooner closed the polls and Providence which can even see into a ballot box and count the returns sees that Cal is the winner and right away sends down some rain for Calif. Yeah, says Ras, and when I come down to the office the morning after election there was a line that reached clear to the postoffice with copy for advs. and job printing in their hands.

Then Dr. Lancaster added his bit by informing the rest of the gents present that he assisted right after the election at the natal ceremonies of a fine bouncing baby boy.

You can't beat the G. O. P., eh?

Ras goes into the voting precinct in Dick Smith's garage about 2 p. m. Wed. and the members of the board were still counting votes and he says he was looking for volunteers to go down and help decorate Legion hall for a dance and would the board members come down as soon as they finished the count. Nobuddy was hurt.

Walt Von Hagen tells a group that Mrs. Von voted just the same way that he did and somebody piped up well if they is a husband and wife that can remember as many choices as was on that ballot well enough to vote just alike it is something worth bragging about.

Coolidge was elected Ras says to little Ras. Why? asks Ras Jr. That's what La Follette would like to know, says Ras.

Judging from the returns it looks like Sam Rappaport was going to be put to it pretty hard making Mrs. R. believe he is going to committee meetings on nights when they is championship bouts scheduled.

Ben Rappaport has got the edge on Sam when it comes to getting away to the bouts, Ben being a bachelor. But never mind Sam, on nights when they ain't no bouts Ben ain't got no place to go.

Young T. R. got beat for gov. of N. Y. and Ras wins one berry from Verne Babcock which Verne ain't paid yet. Verne is pretty near as slow in paying his election debts as Ras is in covering overdrafts.

Speaking of overdrafts Sam Levy says they should ought to be a law against anybody selling red ink to a bank.

Roy Winters is a good election worker. He took a lot of folks to the polls Tuesday. Just before he arrived with a party at the polling place he would say Go in and vote for Coolidge and Briney and hurry on out so I can go get the next load.

It's easy to remember who was vice-presidential candidate with Davis this year, but how many can tell right off the bat who was Cox's running mate four years ago or Hughes's in 1916? Quick now! Can you?

News are scarce, but encouraging, this wk.

TORRANCE NOTES

Mr. and Mrs. Harry McHugh and Mrs. Florence Reynolds and two children arrived from Salt Lake City Thursday morning and have taken the home of Harry F. Gadeky on Andree avenue for the winter. They were formerly residents of Torrance and expect to make their home here permanently.

Mrs. H. S. Scanlon and family, of the Castle Apartments were visiting friends in Long Beach Wednesday.

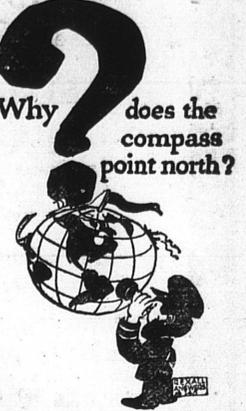

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Lynch of the Castle entertained a number of friends Tuesday evening while listening to the election returns over the radio.

Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Allen were the guests of Mr. Allen's brother at Maywood Wednesday.

Mrs. W. C. George, Mrs. Poole and Jimmie Poole, Mrs. E. H. Allen, and Miss Nyla Tansey enjoyed the plunge at Redondo Beach Thursday evening.

SCHOOL NEWS
The school will have a minimum session on Armistice Day, Nov. 11.
On Thursday the school held a spelling survey as part of a city-wide investigation to determine how the spelling of our boys and girls might be improved. Miss Olmacher was placed in charge of the testing. A minimum session (9 a. m. to 1 p. m.) was held by all city schools to permit the teachers to assist in this work.
Miss Mowry's room won the thrift banner for the month of October. This banner goes to the room from which the most deposits are made in the school savings accounts.
Miss Burgstahler, AI teacher, has been transferred to another school, and her place has been taken by Miss Alice Brooks, an experienced primary teacher.
Mrs. C. A. Oxley, Mrs. Will Oxley and Mrs. Thomas Alton, of Huntington Park, called on Mrs. J. H. Milburn Monday.

Mrs. H. F. Beckwith, Mrs. W. H. Gilbert and Mrs. Letha Miller, who were passing last week at Bouquet canyon, were joined on Friday evening by Mr. Beckwith and daughter Vivian, Saturday being Vivian's birthday. The party was joined Sunday by Mrs. D. A. Barnard, who took a beautiful birthday cake with her in honor of Miss Vivian's birthday.

Broadcasting Your Kindly Yuletide Thoughts

It's a pleasing custom—this idea of sending cards of greeting to our friends during the joyous Christmas season. Each year it becomes more popular as the value of the cards becomes more widely recognized as bearers of kindly thoughts—an interchange of good wishes which exemplify the true spirit of the season.

In answer to the demand for really high-grade greeting cards designed to reflect the individuality and good taste of the sender the Herald office takes pleasure in presenting a selection of cards which it believes is the finest ever shown in this vicinity.

Included in the selection is a large assortment of cards on which the personal message of the sender to his friends may be printed. The prices are reasonable and the designs distinctive.

Also engraved cards of finest quality which may be signed with your own engraver's plate—real de luxe greetings.
