Susan Shops In Torrance

By SUSAN JANE

THERE are thousands on thousands of reasons for buying your Christmas gifts in Torrance. And I know what I am talking about, for I've just completed a tour through all the stores and business houses in town. The thousands of thoughtful Christmas gifts on display in stores here—gifts for young and old and for girls and boys and daddies and mamas and sweethearts—gifts for everyone, and priced to suit just about any sized purse.

Christmas shopping always is a delight. There are so many pretty things to see and one just wishes she had all the money in the San Francisco mint so that she could send a present to everybody she ever knew.

But there—it isn't necessary to own a mint to make Christmas buying a joy in Torrance this year—for the merchants have stocked their stores with the most delightful gifts I have ever seen on display in this neighborhood.

It would take a couple of dictionaries and about ten editions of the paper for me to list every gift I jotted down while sauntering interestedly about through the stores here, but I'm going to set some of them down and hope that they'll help you decide what to buy for the folks on your list.

Gifts for Father

A present for Dad? How about a good utility gift? All men like practical presents. The Torrance Toggery is showing a splendid assortment of gifts for men, ties of every hue, silk hose, Hart Schaffner & Marx clothes, and other trade-marked nationally advertised brands of men's merchandise, including Henshan shirts.

Or maybe Dad smokes. Then a box of good cigars from the United Cigar Stores. A fine assortment of Christmas boxes has been stocked there.

How are tires on the car? Dad would like a new one for that right rear wheel, wouldn't he? The Day and Night Garage sells Hendrie cords, as well as automobile accessories, always good presents.

A large assortment of accessories is available at Schultz, Peckham & Schultz, too, and you might find just the thing for Dad there.

Accessories Good

In addition to selling Buick cars, and lots of them, the Buick agency here also specializes in accessories and is featuring a fine of Christmas gifts.

Maybe Dad is one of those who doesn't repair his own car. Wouldn't a due bill for repairs and auto washing at the White Garage be an unusual and acceptable present? Durable and lasting gifts are eternally acceptable. Decorative pieces of furniture, such as attractive floor lamps, and tables, sewing cabinets and smoking sets make fine family presents.

A pleasing assortment may be seen at Huddleston's Furniture Store. Radio! Need I say any more? The DeBra Radio Store is all set for the Christmas rush. They install complete sets and will take in old sets on new ones.

Suggest Insurance

Tom Foley suggests an endowment insurance policy for the boy or a 20-payment life policy for the girl, and suggests that everyone be careful not to set the house on fire with Christmas tree decorations—at least unless everything is insured.

I saw some fine men's gifts at Ed Kelly's—special Christmas boxes, bathrobes, ties, handkerchiefs, pajamas and gloves. And men do like to get things that may be worn—ask them and see.

George Parr showed me many gifts that combine beauty with utility. Of course one looks for beauty in a jewelry store. And he finds it at Parr's, where beautiful vases, metal clocks, leather goods, toilet articles, gold and silver pencils are available. Mr. Parr has been in business in Torrance for five years.

Open a Bank Account

Cash! Is anything more welcome? A nice neat bank book with a cash account credited therein may be obtained from the Torrance banks, and who wouldn't be tickled to get such a present! Start the baby's bank account this Christmas.

33 Real Estate: Improved.

FOR SALE, $3000—Four-room modern house with sleeping porch; immediate possession. $100 down and $30 per month. 17016 Moore Ave., Moneta, two blocks east of Western Ave.

FOR SALE—Excellent four-room house and garage on Anapola; lot 50x140. $4000, with $500 cash, balance on easy terms. See Gilbert, Hansen and Page, Torrance.

FIVE-ROOM HOUSE, fireplace, garage, large lot, for quick sale. 1518 Anapola.

34 Real Estate: Unimproved

dollar's worth of trade from now until Christmas eve.

How's the battery in the family car? Or the radio set? Better consult Harvel Guttenfelder at the Torrance Auto Electric Company before Christmas.

J. Lepkin, tailor, makes clothes and he makes good ones. What would be more acceptable than a suit of tailor-made clothes or a new coat for Christmas?

How About Slippers

Slippers for men and women might be just what you were trying to think of. Hoffman's Shoe Store is well supplied with them. Shoes, too. For old and young and for both men and women, boys and girls.

A large assortment of gifts is available at Coles Variety Store, including both practical and ornamental presents, and many that are practical as well as ornamental.

Anybody who drives a car would cheer out loud to receive a coupon book for gasoline and oils. Fred Palmer and the Standard Oil Company will sell them—and give you a coupon for the gift festival for each dollar purchase you make.

It's way out west here for a lot of folks whose relatives are all back east, and Torrance restaurants will have special dinners on Christmas day. The Golden West and Percroft Cafes announce unusually attractive menus for Dec. 25. Gift carnival coupons will be given out by these two restaurants.

Fixtures for Homes

Fixtures for the home, shiny and durable fixtures of many kinds, offer suggestions at the Torrance Plumbing Company store.

Lewis Ripple, furniture dealer, has a stock of goods that will provide many good suggestions for those who are seeking utility gifts.

The Torrance Feed and Fuel Company, a well known and popular Torrance institution, is giving away a coupon with each dollar purchase, for this concern operates in every community event.

At any of the business houses mentioned above coupons for the Carnival of Gifts will be given to purchasers—one coupon for each dollar's worth of goods bought.

There'll be another dance Saturday evening, Dec. 13, in Keystone Booster hall. Good floor—good music.—Adv.
