

Farm Commission Seeks Permanent Remedy for Agricultural Ills

A workable program for permanent solution of farm problems is the objective of the commission of eight farm leaders formed by President Coolidge, now in session in Washington, D. C. The body's recommendations will be placed before congress. The members are seen in conference. Left to right (seated) are: Howard M. Gore, acting secretary of agriculture; R. W. Thatcher, Geneva, N. Y.; W. C. Coffey, St. Paul, Minn.; Louis J. Taber, Ohio; Robert D. Carey of Wyoming, chairman; O. E. Bradfute, president American Farm Bureau Federation; Fred H. Bixby, California. Standing: W. H. Jardine, Kansas (left), and Ralph P. Merritt, California.

Gas Pressure Up at Lora J. Well

(Continued from Page One) Decided to abandon the well. It has been drilled to 7000 feet. The Chamber-Confitt has an immense acreage under lease in the vicinity of the Francis, and its decision is important. Prudential and industrial development east, west and south of the well was in abeyance pending the result of the well-testing operations. Now that the well has been abandoned, it is expected that considerable development of this high ground, especially suited to residence and industrial purposes, will take place.

NOTICE OF TRUSTEE'S SALE

Whereas, Earl J. Rice and Selma C. Rice, husband and wife, by a Deed of Trust dated April 22, 1924, recorded May 1, 1924, in Book 4092, Page 35, of Official Records in the office of the County Recorder of the County of Los Angeles, California, did grant and convey the premises therein and hereinafter described to Title Insurance and Trust Company, as Trustee, to secure among other things, the payment of one promissory note, dated April 22, 1924, made by the said Earl J. Rice and Selma C. Rice, for the sum of $1550.00, payable in installments to the order of Sam Louis, with interest from its date until paid at the rate of eight per cent per annum; principal and interest payable in monthly installments of $10.00 or more each on the 30th day of each and every month beginning May 30, 1924; and

Whereas, default has been made in the payment of said promissory note, and a breach has been made in the obligation for which said Deed of Trust is a security, in this, that the installment of principal and interest due upon said note on May 30, 1924, was not then paid; that said principal sum and interest thereon from April 22, 1924, is owing and unpaid; and

Whereas, said Deed of Trust provides that if default be made in the payment of any of the sums of principal and interest when due, the owner and holder of said note may declare the whole of the principal and interest thereof immediately due and payable and require the said Trustee to sell the property thereby granted; and

Whereas, the said Sam Louis has declared that default has been made as aforesaid and has declared the whole of said principal sum and interest now due and payable and has demanded that said Trustee shall sell the premises granted by said Deed of Trust to accomplish the objects of the trust therein expressed; and

Whereas, said Sam Louis, being the holder of said note under said Deed of Trust, did record in the office of the County Recorder of the County of Los Angeles (being the County wherein the real property covered by said Deed of Trust, and hereinafter described, is situated) a notice of said breach, and of his election to cause said property to be sold to satisfy said obligation, which said notice was recorded on September 15, 1924, in Book 3430, Page 166, of Official Records, Records of said County; Now, therefore, notice is hereby given that the undersigned by virtue of the authority in it vested, as Trustee will sell at public auction to the highest bidder for cash, in United States Gold Coin, on Wednesday, the 14th day of January, 1925, at the hour of eleven o'clock A. M. of said day in the lobby of the Fifth Street entrance of the Title Insurance Building, corner of Fifth and Spring Streets, in the City of Los Angeles, California, the interest conveyed to it by the aforesaid Deed of Trust in and to the real property therein described, situate in the City of Torrance, County of Los Angeles, State of California, described as follows: Lot One (1) in Block Two Hundred Ninety-seven (297) of Tract Number Nineteen Hundred Fifty-two (No. 1952) in the City of Torrance, County of Los Angeles, State of California, as per map recorded in Book 23, Page 83 of Maps, in the office of the County Recorder of said County. To pay the principal sum of said note, to-wit the sum of $1550.00, and the interest thereon from the 22nd day of April, 1924, at the rate of eight per cent per annum, sums, if any, advanced under the provisions of said Deed of Trust, the expenses of said sale; and the expenses of said trust in the sum of $150.00. Terms of sale cash in United States Gold Coin, payable at time and place of sale. Dated, December 10, 1924.

HE WAS WISE

Two brothers were being entertained by a rich friend. As ill luck would have it, the talk drifted away from ordinary topics. "Do you like Omar Khayyam?" thoughtlessly asked the host, trying to make conversation. The elder brother plunged heroically into the breach. "Pretty well," he said, "but I prefer Chianti."

Nothing more was said on this subject until the brothers were on their way home. "Billy," said the younger brother, breaking a painful silence, "why can't you leave things that you don't understand to me? Omar Khayyam ain't a wine, you chump; it's a cheese."

"So am I," brutally answered the composer.

Beauty Turns Down Follies; Manages Cafe Instead

Miss Laura Devereaux, 17-year-old Charlotte (N. C.) beauty, would rather be manager of a restaurant than a member of the "Ziegfeld Follies." She was offered a position in the show, but declined, to direct the affairs of a cafe in Charlotte now owned by her mother.

Ford Name Goes on Millions of Parts Each Day

Public Protected by Trade Mark of Big Manufacturer

The name Ford goes on 2,651,000 Ford car and truck parts every day as a protection to car owners against counterfeit parts.

Trade-marking of Ford parts with the word in the now familiar script began in 1914, when spurious parts first appeared. This trade-marking was extended in 1916, when the market was flooded with counterfeits, and today putting the name Ford on genuine parts has become something of an industry in itself.

Different standard parts, into which the trade-mark is worked during manufacture now total 251, from the 70-pound cylinder block to the quarter-ounce switch key.

A special department employing eighteen skilled engravers is continually busy making the stamp dies, while scores of cold-headed steel parts are marked by stencils cut into the dies. Some of the parts, like the crankshaft, piston ring, and real axle gear—because of the sequence of operations and precision required—are stamped in separate operations.

In the engraving department an average of 700 stamps and stencils of the Ford mark in various sizes are made daily.

This trade-mark on genuine Ford parts not only assures to the car owner products that represent twenty-one years of study, research and work in developing the strongest materials and the most efficient designs, but also stands as a safeguard against the counterfeit.

HIS EXPERIMENT

The wife of the great botanist beamed at him across the supper table. "But these," she exclaimed, pointing to the dish of mushrooms that had been set before her, "are not all for me, Llewellyn, are they?"

"Yes, Mabel," he nodded, "I gathered them especially for you with my own hands."

She beamed upon him gratefully. What a dear, unselfish old husband he was! In five minutes she had demolished the lot.

At breakfast the next morning he greeted her anxiously. "Sleep all night?" he inquired.

"Splendidly," she smiled. "Not sick at all—no pains?" he pressed.

"Why, of course not, Llewellyn," she responded.

"Hurray, then!" he exclaimed, "I have discovered another species of mushroom that isn't poisonous!"

Fines collected by the city recorder up to and including Dec. 27 amounted to $1083, it was reported last night.

The board passed a resolution of intention to vacate the alley behind the Jared Sidney Torrance Memorial hospital. The hospital association owns the land on both sides of the alley and wishes to construct a wide ambulance entrance to the building, and eventually to erect a nurses' home behind the hospital.

Hurum E. Reeve requested that the board take steps to have the crossing at Sartori street paved over the Pacific Electric tracks on Cabrillo avenue. The board instructed the city clerk and city engineer to consult with the railway company on the matter.

EXPERT ADVICE

"You say you want some name engraved on this ring?" said the jeweler to the bashful young man. "Yes; I want the words 'George to his dearest Alice' engraved on the inside of the ring."

"Is the young lady your sister?" "No; she is the young lady to whom I am engaged." "Well, if I were you I would not have 'George to his dearest Alice' engraved on the ring. If Alice changes her mind you can't use the ring again." "I would suggest the words 'George to his first and only love.' You see, with that inscription you can use the ring half a dozen times. I have had experience in such matters myself."

Joint Meeting of Boy Scout Troops Rousing Success

A joint meeting of Scout Troops No. 3 and No. 4 was held in the Methodist church last Friday evening under the leadership of District Commissioner Moore as acting scoutmaster and Theodore Reeve as acting assistant scoutmaster.

Scouts Turner McLean and Harry Phillips, of Troop No. 2, are the athletic coaches for the two troops, respectively. Both troops were reorganized as to patrol leadership, with Harwood Clark, Robert Williams and Winston Baird as patrol leaders for Troop No. 3, and Howard Stevenson and James Begley as patrol leaders for Troop No. 4. Boys interested in becoming scouts in either troop should see any of the above named scouts for definite information and application blanks. Joint meetings under the leadership of Mr. Moore will be held each Friday evening in the Methodist church, and an active program is promised. Scout tests will be given in the park back of the schools here in Torrance next Friday morning and afternoon.

CATTISH

Jean, aged 9, and Camille, 7, were having a heated discussion. "I am 7 years old," said Camille. "And I am 9," replied Jean.

"But I shall be 9, too." "Yes, but then I'll be 11—he, he!"

"Yes, of course you'll be 11 when I'm 9. Well, you'll be an old woman before I am, that's all!"
