

Puzzle Shopping for Prizes

There's nothing puzzling about the merchandise or service that the advertisers listed below will offer you. They are representative of some of the best merchants in the city. They have cooperated herewith to help you solve the enigma of securing good merchandise at reasonable prices.

Showing a Display Window Full of Fine Merchandise

The heavy black line, surrounding this space, represents a section of a store front and a carefully dressed window.

In each of the advertisements below is a picture or part of a picture, showing wax figures and merchandise. All but two of the figures represent models and are used to dress the show window.

To solve this puzzle cut out each of the twelve pictures below and paste them in their proper position within the black line around this space. Do your cutting and pasting carefully for neatness and artistic arrangement value of your solution will be considered in the awarding of prizes.
