"Just for Fun"

By RAS BERRY

You know the night before they put the show on regular the stuff of "A Full House" did their stunt in a dress rehearsal for the school students and according to them as seen this performance it was a lot more realistic than the regular show. For inst. Harvel Guttenfelder had to get sore at Floyd Parker and make a pass at him and at the dress practice he was so earnest in his acting that he soaked Floyd right on the beak and made it all swell up.

There was one part too where Harvel had to hold a pair of test cups, which ain't the right thing to ask any battery man to do, and at the dress practice Harvel was so nervous that them cups played Yankee Doodle on the saucers. But Harvel fixed this up for the regular show. Friday night he put a big hunk of lead in each cup.

Officers Edwards and Stroh take in plenty of territory in their nocturnal jaunts around town. Six weeks ago Ras got warned for leaving the puddle-jumper on the street without no lights. A month ago he got a tag for the same thing and was fined a berry and it was suspended. Then he moved way out on Sonoma st. near the edge of town and figured he had them boys check-mated, but then he comes back and the rattle on the street sure enough in the m. they is a tag on the steering wheel and when Ras showed before Mr. Rippy, who he had kidded so much about fining his self why Mr. Rippy extracted two bucks painfully.

Harvel Guttenfelder sicked the officers. He left his car parked on Cabrillo but it was on the P. E. right of way which is private property and them cops couldn't do-nothing.

This col. today is give almost entirely to Harvel who deserves it because he taught the kids in the daytime to turn on lights on cars in the daytime to turn batteries down and he taught Little Ras to do it and Ras ain't got the bill for charging his battery yet so don't know how much Harvel wins.

Ain't that like life? A bird gets fined for leaving his car out at night without lights on it and it costs him jack because the lights was on in the daytime.

Hurum Reeve hadn't no sooner got home from Mexico than he was bit by a dog. Now I suppose he is lookin for a little hair off the dog that bit him.

The necktie that Sam Levy wore in the show was Rufus Pags.

Did you notice them fancy socks of Floyd Parker's? He bought 'em special for the show and he had a pair of gulluses on to keep them ball-bottom pants of him up. He says it was the first time he ever wore gulluses. Reminds me of that one about the pessimist. A pessimist is a bozo that wears both belt and suspenders—like Al Gour-dier.

Local Odd Fellows who visited the San Pedro lodge last Wednesday evening included Carl Ross, Matt Kerber, J. H. Beckham, Mr. Harvey, M. P. Richey, and Tom Sidebotham. During the evening the degree team of the battleship Tennessee conferred the second degree on candidates from their own lodge.
