CHURCH NEWS

ATTEND SERVICES SUNDAY

FIRST BAPTIST

J. Whitfield Green, Pastor.
Sunday school, 9:45 a. m. Gordon Solomon, superintendent. Everyone is getting ready for Easter, April 12. Everyone should be in class on Sunday so as to be ready for a part in the big program on Easter Sunday. I know you will come. Thanks.

Morning service, 11 o'clock. Topic, "The King of Glory." The Easter sermon will be preached at this service, as the Sunday school will have the hour of morning worship Easter Sunday, April 12.

Evening service, 7:30 o'clock. Topic, "Who Will See God?"

Young people's service, 6:45 p. m. Boys and girls, young men and women, you are missing the best things in life if your Sunday evenings are spent at home or on the street, and away from church. Ask some of the business men; their answer may surprise you.

Wednesday night, prayer meeting. Why did you miss last week? The attendance was great and the interest was greater. Remember that night will never come again. Gladstone said "I go to church because I love England." Don't you think he was a man of good judgment? Does anyone in Torrance go to church because they love America or California? Does Christianity help a man to be a better citizen, friend, or home-maker? You might think about it just this once.

FIRST METHODIST
Frederick M. Essig, pastor. Residence 1541 El Prado. Phone 183-R. Call for any ministerial help.
Sunday school, 9:45 a. m. O. A. Leatherman, superintendent. Classes for boys, girls, and grown folks.
Morning worship, 11 o'clock. "Radio sermon" for the children. Sermon by the pastor on "The Keeping God," a Palm Sunday message.
Epworth League, 6:30 p. m. Service for the young folks. A happy, helpful bunch.
Evening worship, 7:30 o'clock. Fifteen-minute talk on "Patriotism and Peace." Sermon on "The Science of Dew."
Prayer meeting Wednesday, 7:30 p. m. A service for prayer and praise. Bring a Bible and join us in studying the Book of Acts.
Next Sunday evening Rev. Essig will give a fifteen-minute talk on "Patriotism and Peace" at the Methodist church. If you want a fight on your hands just start talking about "Peace." But peace is a big factor in the minds of American people just now. It is one of the most dynamic subjects in the minds of men.
Dr. Essig will attempt to answer these questions:
(a) What is worth fighting for?
(b) What price should be paid for peace?
(c) What position should a Christian take with regard to world peace?

Now the boys over to the Tool is figuring on sending through a change of specifications notice altering Spud's name to Rip Van Winkle.

The doctors in town is telling this one. A little girl to whose house there had come a new baby asked her mother how much babies cost a pound and her mother says why you don't buy babies by the pound and the little gal says well why do you weigh 'em the first thing after they come?

A L. A. banker is quoted in the revered Examiner as saying that the land adjacent to the university site up to Beverly Hills is worth less now than it was before the site was chosen and that the company that owns it is suffering a financial loss on account of the university coming there. Gee Whiz, ain't that too bad?

And will you please pass that

Noah Webster says the word sartorial means having to do with a tailor or his work, so it seems right, at this time, to remark that the folks who wanted the university located in the roadhouse belt was sartorially suited.

The choice was tailor-made, in other words, and sewed up tight—a neat sartorial job.

If you take the "n" out of Janss you have Jass, and if I was a lino-type operator in L. A. I would set it up as "the Jass site" for the university.
