

MANY THANKS

At this glad Eastertide, we cannot help from expressing to the people of this district, our sincere appreciation for the splendid patronage that you have given us.

It has been just two short months since we bought the Anderson store, but even in this short time, we have built up a trade that is astonishing, and we want to thank you.

It is most encouraging, we assure you, and only strengthens our determination to give you even better values.

TOWNE ALKE

"Just for Fun"
By RAS BERRY

Jimmie Hines and Brad Bradbury was all set to go up to Hollywood Wed. afternoon except having their brogans shined up and they went over to the shoe-shining stand on El Prado but when they got there they wasn't no shiner present. Being the kinda gents that never would go up to Hollywood without their shoes shined they was pretty disappointed and finally Jimmie says Well Brad I'll shine yours if you will shine mine. And Brad says Pick up the brush and let's go.

Brad now claims the distinction of being the only bozo in the Western Hemisphere that ever had his dogs shined by a banker.

The boys saved 30 (thirty) cents too.

Tom Foley who has been selling plenty of tickets to the Knights of Columbus Dinner and dance for Monday night says that if they is anybody he has missed he don't want them to feel sore and they can't come to his office and get tickets any time and it won't make him mad.

From observing Tom's activity these past few days though I'll say that if they is anybody he has missed why I am the King of Siam.

Which reminds me of the national anthem of Siam. This is the way it goes, to the tune of "America":

- O Va Ta Na Siam,
- O Va Ta Na Siam,
- O Va Ta Na Siam,
- O Va Ta Nas,
- O Va Ta Na Siam,
- O Va Ta Na Siam,
- O Va Ta Na Siam,
- O Va Ta Nas.

"Uncle Danny" Ensign, the new watchdog at the 1st. National, has got a new uniform and he says they had to get it for him to lend him an air of official authority so he could keep his eye on the new mayor.

But it is kinda funny to see a Ensign in Olive Drab.

That oughta make the navy blue.

Ouch!

Did you ever notice how appropriate it is for the American Beauty Parlor in Torrance to be on Marcelina street? From that, one should judge that Carson street should be our automobile row, and Cota street have a tailor shop or two on it. Of course the Post-office should be on Post Avenue and Portola should lead to San Pedro and the Harbor. As for Border street—aha! 'tis the place for bootleggers!

THE BAT.

Yeah, and the hospital should ought to be on Gramercy.

To say nothing of gin mills on Martina.

The exigencies of life and the uncertainty of reasonable security in the commonwealth of Nebraska, as revealed by the following Associated press dispatch to the Los Angeles Times of yesterday morning, may constitute two of the reasons for the rapid depopulation of existence in the city of Torrance, Calif.:

SIDNEY, Neb., April 8.—Chloroforming the sheriff, his wife and a valuable dog, the sole occupants of the house, a burglar escaped with $140 which he extracted from the pockets of the sheriff, J. W. McDaniels, at midnight last night.

No clues to the robbery has been obtained.
