

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Kent of 1001 Sartori Avenue entertained on Saturday evening at a radio party. Delicious refreshments were served to Mr. and Mrs. Van Orsdell, Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Huddleston, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Golden, and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Smith.

Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Midding of Long Beach and Mr. and Mrs. Harley Haynes enjoyed a picnic at Exposition Park on Sunday.

Miss Nell Whyte of Flint, Mich., is visiting her brother, Grover C. Whyte. Miss Whyte will remain in Torrance a month.

Barthelmiss In Film With Wife Here Two Days

New Toys' Will Be Shown at the Torrance Theatre

"New Toys," which comes to the Torrance Theatre on Wednesday and Thursday, presents Mary Hay in the leading role with her husband, Richard Barthelmiss. This is the first time the couple have appeared on the screen together since D. W. Griffith's "Way Down East." For many fans, "New Toys" will serve as an introduction to Miss Hay as a screen actress.

The story of "New Toys" is appealing because of its sheer realism. It presents a young couple in the early stages of married life, settling down to a future of parental happiness with their little home and baby. These are the "new toys," as they call them.

The "toys" begin to pull upon the wife, though, and after a couple of years she succumbs to the lure of the stage. In this she is secretly encouraged by a former suitor and a former sweetheart of the husband.

The characters introduced—meddling neighbors, pseudo friends and open enemies of the little home—and the situations which their interference bring about are striking in their close application to life.

Barthelmiss plays his first comedy role in several years.

Miss Hay has an ideal role for her reappearance on the screen, as her special forte is light comedy. She also dances, so that motion picture fans will get a glimpse of the Mary Hay who is so popular with Broadway musical comedy patrons.

Odd Fellows Dance Greatly Enjoyed

Another of those delightful dances given by the Odd Fellows will be held in Moose Hall, Carson Street, Torrance, next Saturday evening. The music will be furnished by the Hollywoodlanders. Everyone who attended the last dance is sure to be there, and those who missed the last one heard so much about what they missed, they'll be there too.

Mrs. Harry Paige is convalescing from a very severe attack of heart trouble on Saturday morning.

House Peters In 'Tornado' at Lomita Theatre

'Dark Swan' and Elinor Glyn Films Are Also Booked

Tonight and tomorrow will be shown at the Lomita Theatre House Peters in "The Tornado"—the sterling player of the screen in the strongest role of his career.

For one day only, this coming Thursday, "The Dark Swan" will be shown. It is a Warner Classic of the screen, with Marie Prevost, Monte Blue and Helena Chadwick in the cast. A story of two sisters, one beautiful of mind while the other is beautiful of body, both striving for the love of one man.

Elinor Glyn's picture, "Man and Maid," with Renee Adoree and Lew Cody in the cast. The story of a millionaire and his stenographer, one of the most gorgeous and exciting pictures ever made.

Amateur Night Popular Event Friday Nights

Torrance Theatre Attracts Big Crowds With Weekly Event

Amateur Night, which is every Friday at the Torrance Theatre, is becoming more and more popular each week.

Last Friday a house full to capacity enjoyed a delightful Orpheum Circuit sketch called "The Golf Goose."

George Ovey, popular motion picture comedy star, and Walter Willis, a well known dancer of the stage and screen, with Mrs. Ovey and Mrs. Willis, principals in the novel sketch, kept the audience in a continual uproar of laughter for 25 minutes. The stage was transformed into a golf course.

Miss Godt and Mr. Walker were also excellent in a drawing and recitation act. While Miss Godt recited "Out Where the West Begins" and "Let Me Live in a House by the Side of the Road," Mr. Walker crayoned appropriate pictures.

Other pleasing acts were Miss Barbara Lee, a Texas singer, in popular songs, and Bud Snyder, comedian and buck and wing dancer.

Walter E. Frank, in charge of these amateur performances, invites all local people who can sing, dance, play a musical instrument or perform in any way to arrange a tryout with Mr. Anderson, manager of the Torrance Theatre.

New Pipe Organ Is Installed at Lomita Theatre

Organist Will Play Numbers Requested by the Public

Trucks stopped at the Lomita Theatre last week and men unloaded large cases which contained the carload shipment of the parts of the new Wurlitzer organ made and designed expressly for this local theatre. People of this community are now assured of the best music on the best organ made, namely, the Wurlitzer.

Jay Chotiner, manager of the Lomita Theatre, says together with the best organ he has secured the services of Miss Rowena Cowman, who very ably will furnish you the best music. Miss Cowman will render solos of classical and popular numbers. Leave the names of your favorite numbers at the box office and hear them played on the new Wurlitzer pipe organ at the theatre.
