 WILLIAM FOX SPECIAL PRODUCTION

You won't believe it, but this is Tom Mix in the very fancy clothes he wears in his latest photoplay, "Dick Turpin," coming to the Torrance Theatre Sunday and Monday.

eighteen-day stay at our new hospital. I thought I would like to tell the people of Torrance and Lomita what a wonderful place it is.

They have a most wonderful staff of nurses. We sick people used to wonder how they managed to get such a bunch so sweet and kind and willing. There were three of us in one room and not one of us had a special nurse, but believe me, we had good care.

And the doctors. I do not feel that anything I say would be good enough for them. Everyone here knows that we have the best doctors that can be had anywhere. Of course, Dr. Shidler being our doctor. Mr. Smith and I have an extra warm place in our hearts for him, but we owe many thanks to all of them for what they did for me.

'Cappy Ricks' Is Play This Week At the Mission

King Troups Will Present 'The Ouija Board' All Next Week

The most notable character sketch ever seen in this city is being presented by Dudley Ayres at the Mission Theatre this week in his portrayal of Alden P. Ricks, leading figure of "Cappy Ricks," current attraction at the popular Long Beach home of the spoken drama.

Mr. Ayres has achieved some great successes in character leads, notably in "Smilin' Through" and "Grumpy," but most of his admirers are of the opinion that "Cappy" is the best thing he has ever done.

The play "Cappy Ricks" is the stage version of the notable stories by Peter B. Kyne, which were published in the Saturday Evening Post, and constituted one of the most popular pieces of all modern fiction.

It is a swift-moving story of action and fight, with a laugh in every line, and it is proving one of the most popular offerings yet brought to Long Beach by the King Players.

Commencing with the matinee of Sunday, June 14, the company will present something unique in the way of comedy-dramas. It is "The Ouija Board," a startling combination of laughs and thrills, with a touch of spiritualism which marks

Elinor Glyn's Film to Show At the Lomita

'Man and Maid' Will Be Screened Friday and Saturday

Friday and Saturday brings the Elinor Glyn picture, "Man and Maid," which is a romance of a millionaire and his stenographer, with Lew Cody and Renee Adoree in the cast. This is one of the best Elinor Glyn stories.

Sunday comes around again with the high standard vaudeville that has been showing, Earl and Wright, in their humorous songs and chatter, being the best of its kind traveling big time circuits. Evelyn Payton in her "Originalities" is sure to please the most critical, and Marco and Miller with their instruments, including their accordion, will dare anyone to sit still while they are playing. On the screen will be shown Claire Windsor in "The Denial," a story of a love tangle.

Monday is the usual bigger and better Country Store night, bringing it as a play apart from anything recently attempted on the American stage.

The play is one that gained a wide eastern popularity and is certain to provide what he wants to, anyone who is looking for something "different" in the amusement line.

Those UP-STAIRS FLOORS!

"HOW can I keep them presentable?" A properly painted surface—a porcelain-like surface—one that resists water, soap suds, etc. and withstands moving, scraping furniture and pounding heels. That's the answer. And Rubber Cement Floor Paint gives just that surface. Easy to apply.

Also, ask for booklet, "Color Harmony in the Home"—all about painting or finishing floors, woodwork, walls, etc. It's free.
