"BEAUTY AND THE BAD MAN"
Released by Producers Distributing Corporation

Some months ago over a million readers of the Cosmopolitan Magazine were delighted by Peter B. Kyne's story, "Cornflower Castle's Concert," the tale of a young, talented girl who got her big chance to make good on her glorious voice through the philanthropy of a California miner who was considered a bad man by the community.

Now these readers and many millions more are to have the pleasure of seeing this vivid story, for it has now been screened and is scheduled to come to the Torrance Theatre Sunday and Monday.

Mabel Ballin, star of "Vanity Fair" and many other notable pictures, has been entrusted with the role of "Cassie," the young girl who runs away from misery and poverty and is rewarded by a unique opportunity to go abroad and have her voice properly trained.

Forrest Stanley, likely hero whom all the fans adore, plays the part of the supposed bad man who makes the girl's brilliant career possible. In the role of the delightful Chuckwallas Bill, a familiar character in Kyne's stories, is Russell Simpson, who gives to the part a charming wistfulness that is irresistible.

Valli To Appear In Person Sunday At Lomita Show

'Grass,' Weber and Fields, Rin-Tin-Tin, All in Week's Bill

Friday and Saturday brings the picture you have waited for, the masterpiece called "Grass" with a knockout cast of stars—a wonderful picture which is said to be one of the best of the season.

Sunday brings one of the best combination programs ever shown in this theatre. Weber and Fields are at last on the screen in their masterpiece, "Friendly Enemies." Those of you who have seen these two old stars on the stage need no introduction, and the others know that Weber and Fields have entertained millions of people during the extensive period of their life. Besides this wonderful picture, Manager Jay Chotiner announces that he has been successful in securing the foremost mind-reader on the stage today, Valli, and his magic crystal. Valli, who has just concluded a tour of the world, will appear in person at this theatre for one day only at 7 and 9 o'clock. Bring along any question and hear him answer it. Valli will make his appearance together with the regular vaudeville. The Brazilian Trio will serenade you in their native song and dance, and Tiny-Petite Clara Wallucks will do her acrobatic dance numbers.

Monday only will be the famous crook heroine, Evelyn Brent, in "Midnight Molly," together with the regular bigger and better Country Store. Lots of gifts, groceries and gags. Don't miss this weekly event.

By special arrangement with Mr. J. W. Barnes, representing the Lomita Boy Scouts, the boys will furnish their entertainment, together with the regular program, the Christie feature, "Stop Flirting." "Charley's Aunt" was a Christie feature. Nuf sed. So let's all get out that night and help the Boy Scouts.

Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Debra of Cabrillo Avenue and Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Howard of Cota Avenue joined a party of Long Beach and San Bernardino friends at a picnic at Orange County Park Sunday.

Mrs. Catherine Moll, sister of C. M. Mackenzie, who has made many friends during her frequent visits at the Mackenzie home, left this week for Seattle en route to her home in Michigan.

'Ouija Board' Baffles Crowd At Mission

'Kempy' Is Booked for Next Week at Long Beach Theatre

Even the most sophisticated of playgoers are sitting on the edge of their chairs at the Mission Theatre, Long Beach, this week.

The occasion is the presentation by the Charles King Players of Crane Wilbur's startling comedy-drama, "The Ouija Board."

Not since "The Bat" has so mystifying a production been brought to the stage in Southern California. It is strange, weird and baffling, with a touch of spiritualism that lends to it a fascinatingly exotic atmosphere.

Yes, stripped of its clever trimmings, it becomes a vivid, gripping crook drama, strongly reminiscent of Willard Mack at his best, with action as its dominant factor.

To reveal its details would be to spoil the fun for the playgoer. It is wonderful entertainment and is winning a much deserved popularity.

Commencing Sunday, June 21, the King Players will offer what is said to be the biggest theatrical sensation of the season. It is nothing less than "Kempy," the Jack Nugent hit which has been running for more than a year at the Belmont Theatre, New York, and is being brought direct from its engagement there.

"Kempy" is unquestionably the richest story written by any playwright in years. He was a plumber. She was an opera singer. They were married. That's the foundation for "Kempy." On it has been erected a comedy that critics and public alike have hailed as being even greater than "The First Year," and funnier than "Just Married."

The bare announcement that Director Charles A. King has succeeded in obtaining the production rights to "Kempy" brought about an immediate demand for seats, and Mr. King is advising his friends to make their reservations early if they would avoid disappointment.

Mrs. Lovelle Ott of Martina Avenue is recovering from an illness of several days' duration.

Mrs. L. V. Babcock of Gramercy Avenue returned this week from a three-weeks visit with relatives and friends in Oklahoma.
