

New Tailoring Store For Men Is Opened Here

Browning-Baker Branch Puts On Sale at 1322 Sartori Avenue

Opening a Torrance branch at 1322 Sartori avenue, Browning-Baker, Pacific coast makers of made-to-measure clothes for men, today announce an introductory sale to start Saturday and continue for eight days. Details of their offers are contained in a display advertisement in other columns of this issue.

During the sale the store will be open until 7 p. m. nightly and until 9 p. m. on Saturday. The new store here offers a large assortment of woolen materials so that a patron may have a wide variety of patterns from which to choose a suit. The new concern was attracted

Lomita Talent Here Next Week

Next Tuesday and Wednesday the Lomita Theatre offers a program which combines a galaxy of local talent with the moving picture "White Fangs," starring Strongheart, the famous movie dog.

The local feature will be the "Lomita Theatre Girls' Revue." In this production will appear Geraldine Draffen, Jimmy Vantine, "Bobs" Irene Crane, Louise Johnson, Marguerite Skeels, LeRoy Golding, Sara Shelhart, Henrietta Adams, Lois Yager, Eva Maurer and Ruth Maher. This revue, trained by Jay Chotiner, promises to be an excellent performance. Mr. Chotiner has also arranged for the personal appearance of O'Dell Conley, who played in the picture "Little Annie Rooney" with Mary Pickford.

To Torrance as one of the most promising industrial centers in California.

Members Urged To Inspect New Club Structure

The build-up committee of the Women's Club urges members of the club to inspect the building at any time and to keep in touch with the work. If they have any suggestions to offer, they are requested to call Mrs. F. L. Parks, president, 60-W, or Mrs. Hurum Reeve, 32.

Yesterday an informal picnic party was held in the grove in back of the school grounds by Miss Mowry's class, and today Miss Ahrens' class held a party there.

During a visit to the architect's office Wednesday Mr. Bell learned that Ovard plans to start work on the new building about the first of November.

Mr. and Mrs. Austin W. Clark enjoyed a swim in the surf at Point Fermin Sunday.

I says to Hudd

This here furniture business is an interesting sort of business to be in. You remember when we first came to Torrance some three years ago the brides and grooms that used to come shopping for their first furniture.

And now they come in leading a husky youngster by the hand and ask about a bed for him and say they have to have his crib for his little brother or sister.

And the brides of two years ago are buying high chairs, and the bride of a year ago comes in proudly with a bundle in her arms and asks about baby carriages.

And can't you just look years into the future and see these same youngsters shopping for their own first furniture.

And Hudd says aw don't get mushy and what can you do with a guy like that.

Kitty

I'm Hudd's wife and Hudd is boss at Huddleston's Furniture Store—When I'm away.
