Fraternal Nine Trims Torrance By Score of 15-6

Hess Has Bad Day as Vis- itors Garner 18 Safe Hits

Pounding Hess for eighteen safe hits, mixed with local errors, gave the Fraternal Brotherhood ball team an easy victory over the Torrance Merchants. The score was 15 to 6. At no time were the visitors in danger. Thornton pitched masterly ball, using an out curve to good effect. Outside of the fourth and eighth innings the locals were easy for him. He allowed nine blows, but struck out 15 men. Vandover, Thornton and Kroner each connected for three hits, while Schofield hit a home run.

For the locals Atwood got a double and a pair of singles. Du-cazu a three-bagger and single, and Billy Wiedner a pair of singles.
Claypool also contributed a double.

Women's Symphony Orchestra To Give Two L. A. Concerts

Considerable interest is already prevailing in local music circles regarding this season's activities of the Women's Symphony Orchestra of Los Angeles, who again will present two concerts at the Philharmonic Auditorium on the evenings of Feb. 17 and April 21.

Director Henry Schenfeld, well known pioneer conductor and composer, will with his usual artistry wield the baton over his flock of 80 artists, and his repertoire promises a rare treat nobody should miss. Apart from presenting artistic programs, encouraging and promoting musical culture, the principal object of this club is to give women musicians opportunity for studying symphonic music.

For the first concert Alexander Kisselburgh, a baritone of repute, has been selected as soloist, while for the second performance Sylvain Noack, premier violinist and concertmaster of the Philharmonic Orchestra, will be the added attraction. Mr. Kisselburgh is an artist of outstanding merit and genuine ability, and ranks among the foremost soloists in the west. He received all of his training in this country. His art is polished to a high degree, his interpretative powers are rare, which enable him to infuse into a song or aria that indefinable something which we call "heart and soul."

Active membership to this splendid organization—which, by the way is the only one of its kind the world—is open to both professionals and amateurs of ability.
Applications are being received by the corresponding secretary, Mrs.
Elsie R. Lewis, 480 Solano avenue, Los Angeles (phone Capital 2975).

pital Association of Torrance will ary 10th, 1926.

(Signed) ISABEL HENDERSON,
Secretary.
