Lutheran Society Meets on Thursday

The Lutheran Ladies' Aid and Missionary Society assembled last Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. L. C. Miller, 1820 Gramercy avenue, for its regular semi-monthly meeting.

The session was opened with a short devotional service conducted by the pastor, the Rev. W. Lange of Inglewood. An interesting article, "First Lutheran Settlement in America," was read and discussed.

Mrs. L. C. Miller, president of the society, conducted the business of the day. Several ways and means were adopted by which the members expect to raise funds to carry on more effective missionary work in this vicinity. Three new members were received: Mrs. Hoy, Mrs. B. F. Hannebrink, and Mrs. P. G. Wolshlager.

During the social hour palatable refreshments were served by the hostess, Mrs. A. K. Dobrick. The next meeting will be entertained by Mrs. W. Lange of Inglewood at the home of Mrs. E. A. Schwartz, 1731 Martina avenue, on Thursday, Feb. 18.

Regular services are conducted at the Torrance Theatre every Sunday morning at 9 o'clock. A hearty invitation is extended to all Lutherans and others interested in our work.

Miss Teal's Pupils Give Fine Recital

Miss Elsie Teal presented the following pupils in a pianoforte recital last Friday night: Laura May Hyde, Virginia Cooke, Rachel Hudson, Lillian Frazier, Norma Rappaport, Dorothy Stock, Dorothy Stevenson, George Lancaster, Vivian Beckwith, Eileen Woodburn, and Nyla Tansey.

All the pupils played with unusually beautiful phrasing and interpretation. The entire program was played with an artistic finish seldom found in pupils' recitals.

Miss Bunola Kueker, the assisting artist, is a soprano possessing a most lovely voice of unusual range and quality. She is a real artist and sings with rare interpretative insight. She sang the following numbers: "Lungi dal carobene," by Secchi; "The Lute in the Grass," by Turner-Maley; and "Twilight and You," by Evans. She has perfect control of her voice, and her phrasing and interpretation satisfied even the most critical. As an encore she sang "Three Little Chestnuts." There was a request for Miss Teal to play. She played "Waltz in A flat," by Chopin, and for an encore "The Music Box," by Liebeck.

'Birthday Party' Will Be Held in New Narbonne High School

Plans for the entertainment of the Harbor District Chambers of Commerce are practically complete, according to an announcement made today by C. A. Thompson, secretary of the Lomita organization.

All local residents are urged to attend. Those who do not find it convenient to attend the dinner to be served at 6 o'clock Friday evening are invited to attend the open meeting in the High School Auditorium.

During the regular business session of the Harbor District Chambers of Commerce many matters of vital interest locally are discussed. No Lomitan can afford to miss it.

The following program will precede the business session: Address of welcome by Prof. Don G. Humm, first president of the organization; response by P. Roberts, first secretary; vocal solo, Mrs. L. C. Walker; cornet duet, Charles Eade and Woodson Weber, with Miss Effie Eade at the piano; jazz toe dance, Dorothea Duolos, accompanied by Miss Viola Harlan, pianist; "The Rabbit and Fur Industry," Judge S. E. Gibson of Compton; vocal solo, Miss Mercedes Groover, Miss Merle Richey at the piano. The high school orchestra will render several selections during the evening.

SCHOOL NEWS

HIGH SCHOOL
The high school students and friends are to have the very great pleasure of witnessing a three-reel motion picture next Wednesday. The picture is one taken of desert life in the Colorado desert. It shows such animals as coyotes, foxes, rattlesnakes, and skunks in their native haunts, together with some slow motion pictures showing the fox's long, graceful strides and also a terrific fight between a skunk and a badger over a piece of mutton. This is the second film of this type. The previous one was such a wonderful success and so popular that the new one was taken recently and is now being shown at a number of schools throughout the country. The film will be shown at a regular assembly next Wednesday morning.

The new shaper ordered for the machine shop has been delivered and is now all ready but for the belting-up, and will be a very valuable piece of equipment in the high school machine shop.

We are very glad to have Miss Burnham and Mrs. Morse with us again after an attack of the "flu."

Mrs. Susan M. Dorsey, superintendent of Los Angeles city schools, visited the high school Tuesday.

The boys of the shop had a rather unlooked-for surprise Monday when a few girls signed up for auto mechanics. But that isn't half; they really intend taking it. This is the first time in the history of Torrance High that anything of this nature has been attempted. The girls are confident that Mr. Austin will be as proud of his new class as of those in the past. The members of the new auto mechanics class are Daisy Koehler, Garnet Cook, Kathryn Wheaton, Vera Davies, Marjorie Ott, Virginia Torrey, Mary Wilson.

The high school students wish to congratulate the new officers of the Girls' League who were elected Friday, Jan. 29. They are: Ida Reeve, president; Mildred Pangler, vice-president; Dorothy Darling, secretary; and Katharine Fordice, treasurer. We are sure they will be successful in carrying out the duties of these offices.

The time is near at hand when high school students give their annual orations on the constitution. Last year, due to a misunderstanding, our school had but one representative. This year we hope to have two winners. The prize is a trip to Europe. Torrance High is very proud to have as a member of its student body Tom Jones, former of Gardena and winner of last year's contest from this district. We hope Tom will go on to higher honors in the coming contest.

ELEMENTARY SCHOOL
Miss Lillian Gombson is taking the place of Mrs. Ellen Rundell of the foreign room, who is ill.

Miss Helen A. Collier's evening class in cookery and home planning is proving very popular and she reports a full enrollment.

Owing to the large number of new pupils entering school it will be necessary to open an additional room, which will be done in about two weeks.

On Monday the faculty will have a Valentine luncheon party, at which time a Valentine box will
