to producers that pictures can make money without un-making morality.

ACCORDING to the Los Angeles press there is a fight on in the Federation of Women's Clubs over the organization's constitutional provision that all meetings be opened with the flag salute.

I am not one of those that think the recital of a formula is any test of one's patriotism. Anyone can give the flag salute and still hate the United States.

At the same time I cannot understand how any American, native or adopted, can consistently object to the flag salute.

If I were a member of the federation I would insist on the flag salute opening, not because it is necessary, but because some have the temerity to object to it.

Miss Myrtle Payne of Los Angeles was a weekend guest of Mr. and Mrs. George Proctor of Post avenue.

Among other dinner guests of Mrs. A. L. Geary of Redondo Beach on Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. DeWitt Pearson of Western avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Jackson of South Normandie and Mr. and Mrs. William Sullivan of Los Angeles motored to Forest Home Sunday.

Rev. Charles Morton and wife, of Glendale, were dinner guests Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. Dewey Quigley of Manuel avenue.

A Message to Edison Stockholders

THE story of Electric Power and what it has done and is doing for the development of California is one of great interest. Through all its fabric runs the thread of romance. Pioneers have done big things and by their personal initiative have given California the finest electric system in the world.

This series of Advertisements in your local papers will tell the story of the Edison Company and its achievements.

What is the history of the Edison Company? How is electricity made from water power? What does inter-connection do for the average consumer? Why are large plants more efficient than small ones? Why has the price of electricity dropped during a period of advancing costs for other commodities? These are some of the points that will be explained.

Fess and Roberts Repeat Free Offer

So great was the interest in the drawing conducted last Saturday at the Fess and Roberts market in the Masonic building that Mr. Fess and Mr. Roberts have announced another drawing for Saturday, March 13.

Little Miss Bever drew the numbers which entitled Mrs. S. A. Stoddard to both first and second prizes, a ham and a basket of groceries.

The third prize, a 2 1/2-pound can of coffee, went to J. E. McMaster of Cota avenue.

SCHOOL NEWS

HIGH SCHOOL
A banquet was held Wednesday noon in honor of the T. H. S. light-weight basketball team, who were the champions of the Marine League.

Through the courtesy of Mr. Mowry it is possible for a number of the chemistry students to attend a lecture given by Dr. Milliken March 11 at Los Angeles High School.

"A half day away from school and a chance to see all the nice new shiny cars" was the thought of the girls in the auto mechanics class Wednesday. They didn't get their half day away from school, but they did get to see the cars, thanks to Miss Parks.

The Girls' League will have a "get-acquainted" party in honor of the new girls in the school.

Miss Harding of Los Angeles is substituting for Miss Boone, who is absent on account of illness.

Members of the faculty will enjoy a weekend trip to Indio and Palm Springs.

Try-outs are being held for "Am I Intruding?" the student body play which will be given early in April.

The T. H. S. students are proud that they have a co-operative, athletic faculty. The faculty-heavyweight game two weeks ago aroused enthusiasm, and the faculty women, not wishing to be outdone, immediately took action and challenged the senior girls' basketball team to a game.

The boys of the glee club gave a skit during the week. The biggest hit of the play was Johnny Fiesel, a modern college Sheba named Cleopatra. She had numerous beaux, and Harry Phillips, a ghost, after haunting the fair lady, at last captures her.

Put New Counter In at Freeman's

Carpenters and painters have been busy this week putting in a new "horseshoe" counter at Freeman's cafeteria. The new counter has a bright hard maple top and is equipped with new porcelain-top stools, which gives the whole cafe a brighter appearance.

In commenting upon the improvement Frank Freeman, proprietor, stated that it was necessitated by the increasing patronage, particularly in the rush hours. The cafe is open 19 1/4 hours in every 24; i. e., from 5:30 a. m. to 1 a. m. at night.
