Chas. Quandt in Complaint Before Rail Commission

Charles H. Quandt has filed a complaint with the railroad commission against William J. McNamara, alleging that defendant, after having sold a water plant to complainant, located in the vicinity of Lomita, has been furnishing water to one Richard R. Ball, operator of a gravel pit in the territory served by said water plant. Complainant asks that defendant be restrained from his alleged illegal operations.

REBEKAH NOTES

A number of local Rebekahs attended the birthday celebration of Del Mar Lodge at Long Beach Tuesday evening.

A dinner will precede the regular session of Trio Rebekah Lodge next Wednesday evening. The short business session will be followed by a dance. The Silverado orchestra, with Viola Harlan pianist, will furnish the dance music.

The Trio Helpers held an all-day meeting last Thursday at the home of Mrs. K. I. Hudson.

President Alvina Anderson and District Deputy Katie L. Thompson paid an official visit to Edelweiss Lodge in Los Angeles last Friday evening. Local members present were Mr. and Mrs. Morgan, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Ross, Mrs. John Waite, Mrs. Ila MacPhail, Mrs. H. B. Goodrich, Mrs. Ed Lynch, Mrs. Barkalew, Mrs. Hans Anderson, Mrs. Ethel Lanning, and Miss Lucy Owens.

The county school of instruction held in Los Angeles Saturday was attended by Mrs. John Waite, Mrs. Carl Ross, Mrs. H. B. Goodrich, Mrs. J. Gertsen, Mrs. Oles Perry, Mrs. Ed Lynch, Mrs. Barkalew, and Miss Owen. The ladies were entertained at dinner by Mr. and Mrs. Percy Poor.

Funeral services for Charles Morgan were held Tuesday at the residence, 1319 220th street. Interment was made at Inglewood.

Guests Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Walker were Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Iron and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Iron, of Los Angeles, and Will Thomas of Torrance.

All who ever lived in Missouri are invited to meet for the annual picnic reunion all day Sunday, March 21, in Sycamore Grove Park.

SOCIETY

MRS. RUSSELL D. SMITH HOSTESS AT LUNCHEON

Mrs. Russell D. Smith entertained twenty-two of her friends on Friday with a sumptuous Spring luncheon of exquisite appointments at the Ferncroft Cafe. The centerpiece was a beautiful Easter basket, while places were indicated with orchids for Mrs. Alice Bolton, Mrs. Merle Waters, Mrs. Frances Patton, Mrs. Julia Haney, Mrs. Olive Miller, Mrs. Angie Closson, Mrs. Dinah Marshall, Mrs. Margaret Davis, Mrs. Georgia McFarland, Mrs. Cora Baynton, Mrs. Margaret Tetsloff, Mrs. Wright, Mrs. Prasier, Mrs. Doris Palmer, Mrs. Alta King, Mrs. Texana Weiss, Miss Marcella Cox, Mrs. Carl Rice, Mrs. Fanny, Mrs. Mabel Sharon, Mrs. Hannah Smith, and the hostess.

After the luncheon the party adjourned to Mrs. Smith's home, where the color scheme of orchid and green was carried out in a profusion of Spring flowers and an afternoon of music was enjoyed by the guests. Mrs. Merle Waters, radio artist, rendered two vocal selections, and Mrs. Alice Bolton, musician, composed, favored with several piano solos. Among others who participated in the musicale were Mrs. Frances Patton and Mrs. Julia Haney, each offering several piano selections.

FACULTIES ENJOY AN OUTING

The faculties of the Harbor City, Eshelman and Lomita Elementary Schools will enjoy a hike in the hills this afternoon, and a picnic supper.

ROTARIANS GUESTS OF ROTARY ANNS TONIGHT

The Rotary Ann Club will entertain this evening in honor of their husbands at the Surf and Sand Club at Hermosa Beach. About 60 are expected to attend. The color scheme has been worked out beautifully in blue and gold by the committee.

Bridge and mah jong will be played. A midnight buffet supper will be served. Mrs. Wilfred Teal is chairman of the committee, and assisting her will be Mrs. Jack Hanson, Mrs. Roy McFarland, Mrs. Fay Parks, Mrs. Richard Flaherty, and Mrs. Rufus Page.

MUSIC AND ADDRESSES AT ROTARY ANN CLUB

The Rotary Ann Club's last meeting was an exceptionally interesting one. The committee in charge of entertainment and luncheon arrangements was headed by Mrs. Ben Lingenfelter. Mrs. Tom Foley and Mrs. Robert Hoag assisted.

Decorations were in green, and the St. Patrick's idea was carried out in the different courses. Through the kindness of Miss Lois Lingenfelter the Torrance High School Glee Club sang three selections—"When We'll All Come Home," "Tousted-Headed Baby," and "My Love is Like a Kiss."

Miss Lingenfelter sang, by request, "Four-Leaved Clover" and "Sorter Miss You." Mrs. Ben Lingenfelter and Mrs. Robert Hoag gave short inspirational talks, followed by Mrs. George P. Shidler's return of women in their past achievements and accomplishments through courage and strength of purpose in all fields of endeavor. She ably ended her argument with the challenge to modern women to follow their splendid examples and carry on still further.

By a unanimous vote the code of ethics for the Rotary Ann Club was accepted as presented by the committee composed of Mrs. Geo.

P. Shidler, Mrs. William Booth, and Mrs. W. Harold Kingsley. Mrs. Geo. Neill and Mrs. Marguerite Kelsey were welcomed as new members.

Mrs. Carl Hyde, Mrs. Lovelle Ott and Mrs. Marguerite Kelsey will be in charge of the April luncheon.

PAULINE KELLY WEDS SAN DIEGO MAN

With a simple ceremony at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. J. B. Ferguson, of Redondo Beach, Miss Pauline Kelly and Ray Christler of San Diego were married last Thursday by Rev. Roslot of Garden Grove.

After the wedding, at which only relatives and a few intimate friends were present, Mr. and Mrs. Christler left for Del Mar and San Diego. They will make their home in San Diego.

ROYAL NEIGHBORS WILL ENTERTAIN

The members of the Royal Neighbors are planning a "kid" party for tomorrow evening in the old Legion hall on Border avenue. Everybody will wear old clothes, and "a good time will be had by all."

DINNER PARTY AT STONES'

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Stone of Athens entertained at dinner Monday evening.

Local guests present were Mr. and Mrs. Raymond C. Young and Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Kelsey.

TEXANS GUESTS OF HONOR AT DINNER

Mr. and Mrs. George D. Watson of Andree avenue entertained at dinner recently in honor of Mr. and Mrs. L. O. Koen of Houston, Tex.

A color scheme of pink and white was carried out in the favors and decorations of the table. Places were indicated for Mr. and Mrs. Koen, Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Dilly, Mr. and Mrs. John McMillan, and the host and hostess and family.

MRS. WATSON HOSTESS TO AFTERNOON CLUB

The Afternoon Card Club was entertained at luncheon last Wednesday by Mrs. George Watson. The affair was in the nature of a celebration of Mrs. Watson's birthday. Among the beautiful gifts presented was a pillow, the gift of the club.

At bridge, which followed the luncheon, honors were awarded Mrs. May McKinley, Mrs. Henry Barnett, and Mrs. Harry Peebles.

Old mirrors and reflectors refinished. Phone Vandyke 5417.—Adv.

KIWANIS CLUB PARTY AT PALOS VERDES CLUB

The first Ladies' Night of the Kiwanis Club of Torrance, at the Palos Verdes Country Club Friday night, promises to be a gala affair. James L. King, who is chairman of the day, has arranged the following program: Song, club, greetings, George Proctor; reading; vocal solo, Mary Thompson; piano solo, Miss Nyla Tansey; clog dance, Ernie Tomkins; craft talk, Charlie Schultz. Two-minute talks on "My Boyhood Ambition and What I Turned Out to Be," by Ben Rappaport, Art Finster and Henry U-bright, ought to be good. A number of stunts have been arranged to enliven the evening. After dinner, dancing and cards will be enjoyed.
