Three Blazes Keep Torrance Firemen Busy

One House Destroyed, One Partially Damaged; Auto Ignites

Firemen answered three calls Sunday and Monday. A dwelling at 1125 21st street in the shoeing strip was damaged to the extent of $500 Sunday morning. The local men extinguished the blaze, which had started from an oil stove. The building was owned by Albion Sams.

Sunday night the department was called out on Western avenue, where Frank Murray's automobile had caught fire. The men put out the blaze and towed the car to a garage.

Monday afternoon a small dwelling in the pueblo was destroyed by fire. The loss was $150. The building was owned by Salvador Kamrez.

Trustee Says City Should Be Proud of Its Record

(Continued from Page One) Considerable interest has been evidenced in the committee appointments made by Mayor Dennis. These appointments, made Monday night, are as follows: POLICE AND FIRE—Charles M. Inman, chairman; Willis M. Brooks, Brady Wolfe.

FINANCE—Tom Foley, chairman; Brooks, Wolfe. STREETS, SEWERS, PARKS—Wolfe, chairman; Foley, Inman. ORDINANCE—Brooks, chairman; Foley, Inman.

Reporter Snoozes As Women Work In the absence of the "loud speaker" things were very quiet at the meeting of the Torrance Relief Association Wednesday—so quiet that the reporter was able to snatch a much-needed nap.

And that's news, too—usually you can't hear yourself think. However, the ladies present accomplished a lot of work in preparation for the bazaar to be held May 20.

Mr. and Mrs. Ted Frenger, Mrs. Elizabeth Whyte and Grover C. Whyte picnicked in Ventura County Sunday.

Recent dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Mackenzie were Miss Lulu Boasen and Charles Boasen of Hollywood.

New Refrigeration At Quality Market

L. G. Barkdull, proprietor of the meat department at the Quality Market, 2205 Redondo boulevard, has equipped his store with the latest improved refrigeration system. The new cooling system is entirely automatically controlled and will keep the meats at a constant temperature, day and night.

"The Quality Market has enjoyed an unusual growth, and the new equipment has been installed in order to give our patrons the very best service obtainable," stated Mr. Barkdull.

Will Give Away Two Autos and More Big Gifts

Newspapers in Stupendous Offer to People of District

(Continued from Page 1) and News, Herald building, Torrance, Calif., will start you in the campaign with 5000 votes. Additional votes are obtained in two ways: One by clipping the free vote coupons which will appear in every issue of the Herald and News, and the other by obtaining new and renewal subscription payments to the Herald and News, whether it be from a new subscriber or from an old one, according to the length of the subscription. Each free voting coupon will be good for 100 votes and must be brought or sent into the office of the Herald and News before the expiration of the dates printed thereon. Thus it will be seen that the nomination blank, together with ten of the free coupons clipped from the paper, will start a candidate right off with 5000 votes. Full information as to just how to start will be found on the double page announcement in this issue. Or, if you wish, call the campaign manager at the Herald-News office, telephone Torrance 200.

Equal Opportunities Offered The campaign is a very short one, and under no circumstances will it be extended beyond the date advertised. At the end, a committee of judges, whose names will appear later, will count and tabulate the vote totals, and those who poll the greatest number of votes will wish away to their homes in their own luxurious machines. All others will receive sums in cash and merchandise gifts in proportion to their vote totals, as explained in the announcement.

Parents of Former Torrance Principal Injured in Crash

Both Mr. and Mrs. Barnett of Whittier, parents of I. W. Barnett, formerly principal of the Torrance High School, are in a hospital recovering from serious injuries sustained in an automobile accident. The elderly couple celebrated their fiftieth wedding anniversary last year.

Local folks who were weekend visitors at Randsburg and enjoyed a trip down into the Windy gold mine included Mr. and Mrs. Sam Levy, Mr. and Mrs. Hurum Reeve, Mr. and Mrs. Perry G. Briney, Dr. and Mrs. W. J. Neelands, Mr. and Mrs. Frank K. Reed, Mrs. E. K. Lynde, M. L. Darling, and W. Harold Kingsley.

Mr. and Mrs. Reese Cave of Huntington Park were visitors in Torrance Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Fitzhugh of Arlington avenue enjoyed seeing "Rose Marie" in Los Angeles Wednesday evening.

Condition of Miss Fordice Favorable

Miss Lillian Fordice, badly injured recently in an auto crash in Los Angeles, is reported to be in as favorable condition as could be expected.

Miss Fordice sustained a long basal fracture and is still in a critical condition.

Mrs. Julia Bryant Claimed by Death

Mrs. Julia Bryant, wife of George Bryant, passed away Saturday at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Tom Jones, of the Hammer-ton Tract.

Funeral services were held Tuesday at Riverside, and interment was made in the Riverside cemetery. Mr. and Mrs. Jones formerly resided on West Palm street, Lomita.

Tom Foley Is Named Trustee As Smith Quits

Large Crowd Attends Meeting When New Board Is Seated

(Continued from Page 1) zens to attend frequently. He added: "It is our intention to work harmoniously. Mr. Inman and Mr. Wolfe and I have just been elected on a platform to which we are all agreed. We are responsible to the people to execute those principles. Mr. Foley is accountable to us to do the same thing, and Mr. Brooks is agreed with us. Our committees will function as three-man committees and not as one-man affairs. We need your advice and assistance, so come often."

Free Voting Coupon In The Torrance Herald "Everybody Wins" Grand Prize Campaign Good for 100 Votes

I hereby cast 100 free votes to the credit of Miss, Mr. or Mrs.

Address _____

This coupon, neatly clipped out, name and address of the candidate filled in, and mailed or delivered to the Election Department of The Herald and News, will count as

100 FREE VOTES

It does not cost anything to cast these coupons for your favorite candidate, and you are not restricted in any sense in voting them. Get all you can and send them in—they all count. Do not roll or fold. Deliver in flat packages. NOTE:—This coupon must be voted on or before May 12th.

The Herald and News is choosing the latter at this time because it enables us to get a larger circulation more quickly (even though the cost is greater) and also to share with those who are willing to assist in the growth of this newspaper.

And it is not expected that the candidates will depend wholly upon their own efforts—friends will help them gather votes—and what a merry party it will be—with beautiful rewards in the end.

There are plenty of prizes to go around among the hustlers—indeed, there is a prize, either cash, merchandise or automobile, for every active participant. The plan is a competitive one and will be conducted on a business basis. The bigger your efforts, the bigger your prize.

Turn now to the big double page announcement. See for yourself the unprecedented opportunity the Herald and News is placing before you. And get an early start for one of the automobiles by sending your nomination nomination blank or that of a friend today to the Campaign Department of the Herald and News, Herald building, 1419 Marcelina avenue, Torrance, Calif.

Visitors at the new Potrero Country Club Sunday were Mrs. Mary Lingenfelter Thompson, Miss Lois Lingenfelter, and Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Mackenzie.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Schuricht and family, of Los Angeles, were dinner guests Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Hannebrink.

House guests of Dr. and Mrs. N. A. Leake of Marcelina avenue were Mrs. D. L. Crandall of Hollywood and Mrs. Leake's mother, Mrs. M. A. Bruere, of Fresno.

Mr. and Mrs. Homer Hall and family, of Glendale, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Woodington of Arlington avenue.
