SCHOOL NEWS

HIGH SCHOOL

Robinette See has returned to school after a two weeks illness.

Play practice for "Agatha's Aunt," the Senior play, is proceeding. The date has been set, June 11.

Around the world by way of color pictures with Mr. Arnesen, made a very delightful play and—calls bring funds into the student body treasury and help to pay the debts that have accumulated. They are also very interesting and bring Geography and Economic facts to the students in a way that makes them remember.

It is with regret that faculty and students have learned of the sudden serious illness of Mildred Hospital.

Plans are in the air for a new Torrance High Activity which is arousing considerable enthusiasm. It is felt that a Commercial Club would fill a need of the students and would bring much pleasure and profit.

The Sophomore Class to the number of 46, accompanied by Miss Kunkel, Miss Jones and Coach Mitchell had a jolly straw-ride to Clifton-by-the-Sea Friday evening, May 21.

Wines and marshmallows were roasted and stories and jokes were told around the bon-fire. Everyone voted it a good time.

The next game of the baseball season will be with Excelsior, Friday, at the Torrance HI School grounds. Torrance and Excelsior are about even in percentage and this will probably be one of the best games of the season.

"Be noble and the nobleness asleep in others will rise to meet your own." This was the keynote of the very helpful and delightful talk given the students May 18 for World Friendship Day, by John B. Corcoran, assistant director of Vocational Education, his subject in a very unique and interesting manner held the attention of the students throughout his talk.

The Annual Tennis tournament held at Fullerton Union High is scheduled for May 28 and 29. Torrance High may be represented.

Mrs. Morse and Miss Mabee took the Latin and Ancient History Classes to Los Angeles Tuesday to visit the classic exhibit in the Chamber of Commerce building. It was a very interesting excursion.

"The Pirate's Daughter," given by the Junior High Section of Torrance School Friday evening was a delightful entertainment. The little actors had such a good time themselves that the audience could but go along with them laughing and enjoying the songs and jokes. We hope the Juniors will give us some more some day.

Seventeen students have signed up for a Course in Salesmanship next year. This will be given as an upper Division subject and promises to be a good addition to the Commercial Department.

Miss Irene Mills was out of school Monday with a bad sore throat. Miss Coons was sent out as a substitute for the day.

Modern education takes advantages of many helps unknown to the pupils and teachers of the little old red school. Tuesday, May 25, two interestingly educational trips went from Torrance High and the late afternoon saw the students returning interested and enthusiastic about the "wonderful" things they had seen.

Mr. Mowry piloted two classes, the Chemistry and Journalism to Long Beach.

They visited several industrial plants.

Much time was spent in the different departments of the Long Beach Press Telegram office. They visited the press room, watched the linotype and stereotype machines, saw the cylinder presses and found much of interest in the circulation department and job printing department and even the basement where the paper is stored.

Of especial interest was the telegraph room where the news dispatches come from the typewriter as if by magic.

Miss Millard took her history class to the museum at Exposition Park where they saw many things relating to their work in science.

Women's Club Presents Misses Teal and Kucker in Recital

The Women's Club of Torrance presents Elsie Teal, concert pianist, and Bunola Kucker, dramatic soprano, in joint concert at the Women's Club in Torrance, Monday evening, June 7 at 8 o'clock.

Miss Teal and Miss Kucker are eastern artists. They received their training there and are very well known in their respective professions.

Miss Kucker is the possessor of a very lovely voice of exquisite quality and splendidly trained and is an artist in every sense of the word. She now studies with Frans Arens. She teaches singing at The Hollywood School for Girls and St. Mary's Academy and also has a studio in Hollywood.

The following is from the Inglewood Daily News, "Miss Kucker's voice is of exquisite quality, finely trained, bringing out its sweetness and volume."

Musical Courier—New York City She has an excellent natural voice and real musical feeling and sings with intelligence and appreciation of the composer's intention.

San Bernardino Daily—An outstanding feature of the evening was the inspiring selections by Miss Kucker.

Miss Teal made her New York debut at Aeolian Hall, N. Y. City in 1920. She has done concert work for many years and was won substantial recognition. She knows her instrument thoroughly, and has won recognition of her art of which any pianist might well be proud. She has a brilliant technique and plays with finished artistry.

Of Elsie Teal, Pianist, papers have commented as follows: New York Mail—Unusually sparkling fingers—commendable attention to the too often forgotten art of pedaling.

New York Telegram—Clear technique, clear touch.

New York Herald—Pianist of capacity.

New York American—Played difficult program with commendable skill.

New York World—Faeile fingers and pretty ingenuous taste.

Hartford Times—Miss Teal possesses the talent of genius. Few of the pianists of the present day play with any more enthusiasm or any greater skill. Her pedal work is handled with unusual skill and she is a thorough artist.

Mrs. E. B. Smith, were recent luncheon guests of Mrs. William Stinebaugh of Gillette Manor.

Snake Bars Door Of Cota Home; Cop Kills Reptile

A large snake caused a temporary furor on Cota avenue last Saturday afternoon and barred the entrance to the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Johnson. Mrs. Johnson and Miss Mary Elizabeth Israel sought to enter the Johnson home, when they saw the big snake coiled near the front door. They entered by the rear and phoned the police. Officer Brundette answered the call and dispatched the snake with his gun. The officer declares the snake was a rattler, but others declare it was merely a large gopher snake.
