Stick To Board Through Fire

"Where's the fire?" came hundreds of calls through the Ashland (Wis.) telephone exchange one day recently. "Right here," was the best answer that "Central" could give. And that's where the fire was, in a store below the exchange. The girls stuck to the board through-out the three hours while the firemen were fighting the flames. The girls are Miss Anna Lewandowski (left) and Anna Lutke.

City Will Pave Carson Street In Strip Soon

Councilman Coulter of L. A. Promises Speedy Action on Connecting Link

That the portion of Carson street that lies in the Los Angeles Shoe-string Strip east of Torrance will be paved shortly was the promise given Torrance Chamber of Commerce representatives by Councilman Coulter of this week. A petition for such an improvement has been filed and plans for a 50-foot pavement are being drawn. Councilman Coulter said that the work will be pushed as rapidly as legally possible.

Lomita Church Program Sunday To Be Patriotic

National Holiday Prompts Special Service at House of Worship

In recognition of the national holiday the services at the Lomita Community Church will be of a patriotic nature next Sunday. At the morning service the pastor, the Rev. Louis Tinning, will speak on the subject "Junking the Constitution." Some plain things will be said by the pastor on the matter of loyalty. A few unmistakable broadsides will also be delivered to those who claim citizenship but by their attitude undermine law and its enforcement. Come and hear this message. It will either make you mad or else you will rejoice that you are an American citizen.

Special music is being prepared for this service and a number of interesting and unusual features will be introduced. Invite all your friends to spend this holiday weekend in Lomita and bring them to the Community Church for its quiet helpful services.

Walter Northrop has returned from several weeks' stay at Delmar.

Embroidered

Here is a typical summer frock the material of gray georgette crepe, with the embroidery work in black, red and gold.

Lomita Voters Will Ballot on $370,000 Issue

Water District Election Will Take Place Here Next Wednesday

Voters of Central and South Lomita will vote next Wednesday on a proposition to form a county water district and issue bonds for $370,000 to drill wells and lay pipes for service.

The campaign over the proposition in Lomita has been intense and in this, the last week of the campaign, a battle of dodgers has been waged, with proponents and opponents of the measure doing their best to win support. A majority is required to decide the issue. If the proposal carries three mutual water companies now in operation in Lomita will junk their equipment and stop operations.

Mrs. Effie Hayden Attends Conclave

Mrs. Effie Jane Hayden has moved to Los Angeles, where she will remain until after the educational convention at Huntington Lake Aug. 9-10, when she will return to Torrance.

Mrs. Hayden, military instructor, has enrolled for a course at the U. C., which includes economics, vocational training, English, history of art, and costume designing.

At the close of the past semester, among several beautiful gifts that were presented to Mrs. Hayden were a handsome leather hat, box from the Wilmington class, a luncheon set and Italian glass flower bowl, Lomita class; a hand-made Torrey Pine luncheon basket from Gardena; crepe de chine lingerie, Torrance; and a box of Scotch scones, cake, nut bread and sweet bread from Mrs. Banning Young of Wilmington.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. N. Comer and daughter Gladys, of Toledo, O., are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Inman of Arlington avenue. The Inmans and Comers are old friends and were former neighbors in the Buckeye city.
