Orpheum Offers Fanny Brice In Her Third Week

CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR NOTES

A hilarious farewell offering will be presented by Fanny Brice in her third and possibly last week at the Orpheum starting Sunday August 8. The famous comedienne has changed her act for her final appearance to please those fans whom one performance of David Belasco's new star does not satisfy.

Other acts on the bill are: Eddie Conrad with Marion Eddy and Charlotte in "L'Episod Peculiale"; Virtuoso, with Maurice Raiser accompanist; Sylvia Bremer and William J. Kelly in the sketch "The Writer's Club, 'The Boob', by Mr. Kelly; Shaw and Lee in "Nature's Gift"; the welcome return to vaudeville of Ben Bard the renowned New York wit as "The Speaker of the Evening"; Page and Glass, dance eccentricities in the act; and as a finishing touch on this snappy program the greatest after-piece of the year, "Amateur Night in New York Twenty-Five Years Ago."

In this howling, hilarious, hurly-burly gathering of supposedly amateur vaudevillians of long ago the artists will give the audience a half hour's entertainment that will be a scream with delight by all those who are present when this brilliant group of talented performers band together and outdo themselves to please in one glorious act.

ASK almost anyone, "Who owns the Edison Company?" and he will probably answer, "Well, I own part of it." He may follow this by mentioning half a dozen of his neighbors who also are partners.

At the time of writing this, there are 103,039 stockholders in the Edison Company and ninety per cent of them use our service. Among them are 57,754 men, 41,879 women, 2376 children and 1030 estates. This means a widespread interest in the Company's affairs.

Then consider the employees. Ninety-five per cent of them are stockholders and their holdings are in excess of $6,000,000. This means a greater interest in their job, a broader knowledge of their work and a greater consideration for the customer's needs.

Eugene Goossens Booked for Bowl

Eugene Goossens, brilliant young British Composer-conductor, and one of the most interesting figures in contemporary music, will be guest conductor in Hollywood Bowl the week of August 10 to 14. During the week of August 10 to 14, Eugene Goossens' musical career has attained prominence by starting the Rochester Philharmonic orchestra on its way to success, and also by his guiding it along that path for the three years of its existence. He has also acted as guest-conductor with the New York and Boston symphony orchestras, winning unstinted praise from critics and the public. He is but thirty-three years of age and is the youngest conductor ever engaged by the Hollywood Bowl association.

Germaine Schnitzer, a pianist of international reputation, will be the soloist in Hollywood Bowl on Thursday evening, August 12. Madame Schnitzer has appeared as soloist with many of the leading symphony orchestras of Europe and America, and has been heard in recital in the world's famous musical centers including Vienna, Paris, Berlin, Warsaw, Leipzig, Dresden, Stockholm, Prague, Boston, New York, Philadelphia, Cincinnati, Chicago, San Francisco and Los Angeles.

In all of these appearances, Madame Schnitzer has demonstrated her unusual mastery skill and poetic imagination.

In Hollywood Bowl, Madame Schnitzer will play the favorite Tschalkowsky B minor concerto.
