TRIPLE CITY LODGE PLANS "FLEA HOP"

After a short business session next Tuesday evening, Oct. 10, Triple City Lodge of Odd Fellows, assisted by the Trio Rebekahs, will entertain at a "flea hop," whatever that is.

Matt Kerber is flea-in-chief, and Flea-ess Marie Kerber says she's doing all the work. Now you know there'll be fun aplenty.

Everybody is invited. There'll be dancing, for one thing. The proceeds will be applied to the fund for the stereopticon machine to be used in the work of both lodges.

FAST NOBLE GRANDS ENJOY LUNCHEON

The Trio Past Noble Grands Association celebrated their second anniversary Monday with a charming luncheon, followed by an afternoon of games, music and short speeches.

Thirty-eight members of the Del Mar Past Noble Grands Association of Long Beach were present, as were Mrs. Carolina Poor, past district deputy of Los Angeles, and Mrs. Bartalew, a past district deputy of Arizona. It developed during the afternoon that only two of the guests were native daughters.

The banquet room and tables were beautifully decorated with the lodge colors, and the favors were tiny pink kewpies dressed in green.

MRS. JAMES L. KING GUEST AT SURPRISE

Mrs. James King was guest of honor at a delightful surprise farewell party Tuesday afternoon. The affair, arranged by Mrs. F. G. Briney and Mrs. J. H. Fess, was held at the Fess home on Arlington avenue.

Fruit salad, wafers, cake and tea were served at the close of an afternoon of fancy work and conversation.

The guests, who brought many beautiful tokens of their love for Mrs. King, were Mrs. Paul Beall, Mrs. May McKinley, Mrs. W. C. Andrus, Mrs. Leon Fordyce, Mrs. W. C. Von Hagen, Mrs. A. Shriener, Mrs. George Watson, Mrs. F. L. Parks, Mrs. John Guyan, Mrs. A. W. Boynton, Mrs. Fred Leasing, Mrs. W. J. Neelands, Mrs. F. H. Dye, Mrs. E. N. Tomkins, of Torrance, and Miss Hermine Oetken, Mrs. C. A. Thompson and Mrs. C. T. Thompson, of Long Beach.

MRS. FOLEY HOSTESS AT BRIDGE LUNCHEON

Mrs. T. F. Foley was hostess at a delightful bridge luncheon last Thursday.

Honors at cards went to Mrs. L. B. Kelsey, Mrs. Harry McManus, and Mrs. Abel Shriener.

Other guests present were Mrs. Hawk of Los Angeles, Mrs. R. R. Smith, Mrs. Brady Wolfe, Mrs. J. H. Fess, Mrs. R. C. Young, Mrs. A. W. Meinzer, and Mrs. George D. Watson.

EASTERN STAR DANCE AT CLUBHOUSE OCT. 7

The Eastern Star benefit dance to be held Thursday evening, Oct. 7, in the Women's Clubhouse will be well attended, judging from the advance sale of tickets.

The Oriole 8 will furnish the music. Mark the date—Oct. 7.

BIRTHDAY LUNCHEON GIVEN FOR TWO

Mrs. Oliver Patton and Mrs. Dewey Quigley were guests of honor Monday at a birthday luncheon given by Mrs. George F. Christopher of 1411 Cedar street.

The guests, who enjoyed an afternoon at cards, were Mrs. A. L. Farmer, Mrs. A. A. Woodward, of Glendale; Mrs. A. L. McCollum, of Long Beach; Mrs. C. B. Patton, of Los Angeles; and Mrs. E. G. Christopher of Torrance.

MANITOBAN GUESTS HONORED AT PARTY

Claude Montgomery and N. E. Dickerson, of 2015 Arlington avenue, entertained last Saturday evening at a farewell party for Mr. Montgomery's mother, Mrs. Montgomery, and Mrs. Kines. The ladies left this week for their home in Manitoba.

Refreshments were served at the close of an evening of games and music to guests from Long Beach, Huntington Park, Gardena, and Torrance.

TORRANCE WOMEN AT HOLLYWOOD ENTERTAINMENT

Mrs. J. H. Fess and Mrs. A. Shriener of Torrance and Mrs. Elizabeth May Gentry of San Pedro were among the guests at the entertainment for Advance officers held Monday night by the Hollywood chapter, O. E. S.

AID SOCIETY GIVES PARTY FOR MR. AND MRS. KING

Mr. and Mrs. James King were guests of honor at a farewell party given Tuesday evening under the auspices of the Ladies' Aid Society of the Methodist Church.

A large group of friends sat down at 6:30 at tables loaded with good things to eat, and afterward adjourned to the beautifully decorated parlors, where an excellent program was presented. Rev. Lyall gave two vocal selections, with Mrs. George at the piano; Master John Young rendered a piano solo, and Fred Hopkins gave two readings. Short talks were given by Mrs. E. F. King, George Steadman, H. King, and Mrs. George.

Mrs. Guy Mowry, in behalf of the Ladies' Aid Society, presented a beautiful vase to Mrs. King, in appreciation of her work in the church, and expressed the wish of all that good luck and happiness follow Mr. and Mrs. King to their new home. Mrs. King responded with a few appropriate remarks.

Mrs. King gave a short talk, recounting his life in Torrance, with all its joys and sorrows, and at the close asked all to join him in singing "Smile Awhile."

The affair closed with prayer by Rev. Lyall and the singing of the doxology.

Credit for the success of the evening is given Mrs. H. Harry, Mrs. S. Hopkins, Mrs. Guy Mowry, Mrs. C. Holland, Mrs. W. C. Andrus, Mrs. O. Hall, and Mrs. Edward Clarkson.

MRS. W. C. VON HAGEN HOSTESS AT BRIDGE

Mrs. W. C. Von Hagen of Gramercy avenue entertained at bridge Wednesday afternoon. Honors were awarded Mrs. Brady Wolfe, Mrs. O. E. Fossum, and Mrs. L. H. Dye.

SECTION D NOTES

Mrs. Phoebe J. Milburn was appointed registrar for press conferences at the regular conference in Los Angeles last Thursday.

Mrs. H. B. Linderman, emblem chairman of Section D, and Mrs. W. A. Miller, Tenth District director, attended the bi-monthly conference of the directors of the State Federation, held this week at Santa Barbara.

Mrs. Isabel Henderson, librarian of Torrance, will give a talk on "Literature for Juveniles" at the Lomita P.-T. A. Tuesday afternoon, Oct. 5.

At a special called meeting of the executive board Mrs. George Shiller was appointed president, to succeed Mrs. William Laven, resigned.

P.-T. A. Presidents Hold Conference

A conference of the presidents of the Parent-Teacher Associations in Section D was held last Friday at the home of the section councillor, Mrs. J. A. Shuey, 1211 Avalon boulevard, Wilmington.

Hostesses for the day were the presidents and other officers of the four Wilmington associations.

During luncheon and after, plans for the year were discussed. Representing local organizations were Mrs. C. H. Meers and Mrs. A. F. Welton of Long Beach, Mrs. J. A. Mulken of Harbor City, and Mrs. Phoebe J. Milburn of Torrance.

Mrs. Shuey has accepted the invitation of the Torrance P.-T. A. to hold the section mass meeting Friday, Oct. 22, at the elementary school.

NOTICE TO C. E.

Local Christian Endeavor officers will note that the Redondo District executive board will meet Thursday evening, Oct. 14, at 7:30, at the Central Evangelical Church, Marcellina avenue, Torrance.

Mrs. M. L. Aeres, who has been critically ill at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Dexter of Artesia, N. M., is reported to be improving.

ST. LOUIS GIRL BRIDE AT PRETTY WEDDING

The home of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Forbes of 1620 Post avenue was the scene of a pretty wedding Saturday evening, when Miss Catherine Frances Forbes of St. Louis, Mo., and Archie A. Johnson were united in marriage by Rev. Reardon of Glebe House.

The bride, charming in white crepe, who was given away by her uncle, J. E. Forbes, carried a beautiful bouquet of pink and white roses and sweet peas. Mrs. M. L. Darling was matron of honor and wore a cerise-colored gown. The bridesmaids were Mrs. Raymond Estes, in salmon, Miss Lorraine Murray, in cream, and Mrs. Teresa Wall, in pink. Elite Hoffine, the dainty little flower girl, was also attired in pink.

The groom's attendants were L. E. Jackson, Martin Kupel, and Gordon McDonald.

An elaborate supper was served to the bridal party and the following guests: Mr. and Mrs. Charles Schafer, of Los Angeles; Mr. and Mrs. L. Hoffine, Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Shepherd, Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Marsh, Mr. and Mrs. M. G. McCright, of Long Beach; Dr. and Mrs. S. C. Wolfe, of St. Louis; Mr. and Mrs. John Hall and Mr. and Mrs. Erwin Hall, of Wausau, Wis.; and M. L. Darling, of Torrance.

Mrs. Johnson, who is the daughter of J. E. Forbes of St. Louis, arrived in Torrance about two weeks ago, and has since been a house guest at the home of her uncle. Mr. Johnson is a member of the crew of the U. S. S. Mississippi. They will make their home in Torrance.
