Short Furrows

—By KIN HUBBARD

ON YESTERDAY AN' T'DAY

ON TH' ROAD T' NIAGARY

With my long skirts an' five petticoats an' shiny nose. My gran'maw smoked a pipe in th' back yard, but I didn't take up smokin' till two years ago. I wasted a lot o' time learnin' t' play th' pianer, an' jest about th' time I mastered th' pianer, th' player pianer showed up. I've got a vivid recollection o' th' dandy ole twenty-five cent Sunday dinners at th' hotel we had on my birthday. Th' first auto we ever seen wuz brought here by Tell Binkley, then a promisin' young tornado insurance agent. He'd be a rich man t'day if he'd waited ten or twelve years before he got one. My Matt worked like a dog when we wuz first married, an' he's had about twenty-eight kinds o' jobs since. Ever' new job he got he worked less an' got more. T'day he's some kind of an expert an' don't do nothin' now but travels about an' speaks before Rotary Clubs an' other men's organizations. He calls it spreadin' sunshine, an' he sits big money. I myself don't wash an' iron any more. Oh, I may rub out a few socks or handkerchiefs, but I don't rub an' boil an' scrub an' dust like I used to. A woman can't do them things an' look presentable all th' time. We bought a baked p'tater an' some turkey wings in a cafe th' other night, an' I turned t' Mat when I seen th' bill an' said, 'Mat, dear, I wonder if you realize how this ole world has changed since we et in Buffalo twenty-five years ago?' —Copyrighted.

TOWNE TALK

"Just for Fun"

By RAS BERRY

Lovelle Ott has got a new shirt and it is quite a noisy garment and Jerry Calder who is head of the local police, he heard so much noise coming from Daley's that he issued a riot call and the cops went down there thinking somebody was attacking the police commissioner and when they got there two of them run away and the rest fainted when they seen Butch's shirt.

Butch says if Charlie Inman wuz a gentleman of rare discrimination driving such a car.

After a long struggle Mr. Nelson of York arrived in Torrance to take up his duties as cashier of the 1st Nat'l bank. The reason for the long struggle is that he drove the same kind of car that Al Bond labors along on top of. W. Post told 'Al that he didn't expect Mr. Nelson until about Christmas, but that he got a tow over the Rockies and was o. k. when he hit the down grade.

Al he says Mr. Nelson must be a gentleman of rare discrimination driving such a car.

Mr. Nelson you know comes from York. If many more York folks move to Torrance it won't be long before the editor of the York Teller will have justification to give voice to the Shakespearean graveyard utterance which goes: Alas Poor York, I knowed it well.

One bozo says this Mr. Nelson is a fine fellow and ought to be able to tell 'em no and make 'em like it.

And they was a chorus from some inveterate borrowers that they hoped he could make folks like it without saying no.

One thing we all hope and that is that the advent of more former residents of York will not increase the interest of other ex-Yorkers in Torrance.

The bankers in every town has got a throwing hold on pretty near everybody and we don't want no double Nelsons in Torrance.

Mac McMillan says he expects to see a sudden increase in the number of golf players at Palos Verdes from now on and that with some guys getting more practice day by day he is going to change his wagering system and demand a bigger handicap.

He needs it.

Old Ship Kelsey says ament fire prevention that the reason he and Tom Foley started specializing with one writing only life insurance and the other only fire insurance was that with all this fire prevention agitation they was being pressed by the wayward for policies insuring folks against fire after death.

My brakes on my car locked the other day and one of them ketched on fire and I drove up to a house on Narbonne ave. and got a hose and put it out and Mrs. Joe Cook came out of the house and professed her services as chauffeur to Dr. and Mrs. G. T. Van Voorhis were dinner-guests Wednesday of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Wilhoy of Beacon street.

Charles Culver, Harold Ham-mack and George Wilkinson attended the football game at Trona field, San Pedro, Saturday.

Mrs. Bessie Reid and daughter Bessie were weekend guests of Long Beach friends.

Mrs. H. G. Randles and Mrs. G. M. Randles spent Wednesday at Ocean Park.

Concrete Streets, like Concrete Roads, have the maintenance built into them.

Concrete Alleys Led the Way to Concrete Streets in Whittier

When Whittier, California, found out what sanitary, neat-looking alleys concrete pavement made, people naturally asked, "Why not concrete streets?"

Whittier now has 458,630 square yards of this firm, rigid, unyielding pavement. Many thousands more yards are to be added this year.

Concrete pavement will dress up your streets. Its true, even surface will always be free from ruts and bumps.

And the non-skid surface of concrete makes it always safe to drive on — another important advantage in a tourists' all-year wonderland like California.

Don't just say "paving." Say "Portland cement concrete" — the safe-to-drive-on pavement with the pleasing light gray color.

All of the facts are in our free booklet "Concrete Streets." Ask for your copy.
