Each Day New Proof of Pontiac Six Supremacy

Now rapidly approaching the 75,000 mark, Pontiac Six Production incontestably proves that there was a demand for a low-priced six of high quality—and that the Pontiac Six meets that demand like no other car in the world!

exceed thirty-three thousand cars. Yet the Pontiac Six, introduced only nine months ago, has already more than doubled that figure. This impressive achievement is based not only on the brilliant beauty and spacious comfort that the Pontiac Six offers at so low a price, but also on stamina, ruggedness and thrilling performance which stamp it a triumph of quality car design and construction.

In all the thirty-one years of automotive history, the greatest first full year's production ever attained by any new make of automobile did not

ROTARY ANNS ENJOY SPLENDID MEETING
The October luncheon of the Rotary Ann Club was beautifully arranged by Mrs. Harry Dolley, Mrs.

The auditorium of the Methodist Church presented a beautiful appearance Tuesday, when the fifth anniversary of the Ladies Aid Society was celebrated with a delightful luncheon.
The center of the oblong formed by the tables was a mass of ferns and flowers. A huge birthday cake with five candle sentinels was the center of attraction. The color scheme of old rose was carried out in decorations of the room and table, with cosmos and asters, and potted plants added to the charming effect.
Guests of honor were Dr. Lena L. Fisher and Dr. Young, of the U. S. C.; Mrs. C. Warren, Mrs. E. N. Tomkins, and Miss Mary Spoon. During the luncheon Mrs. Russell Budge rendered two solos, accompanied by Miss Comer, violinist, and Mrs. Comer, at the piano. Mrs. Warren, first president of the society, conducted the ceremony of cutting the birthday cake, assisted by Mrs. Tomkins, third president.
Following an introductory talk by Rev. Lyall, Dr. Fisher was introduced by the president, Mrs. Mowry, and presented with a corsage of sweet peas.

Guests for the day were Mrs. Frank Sammons of Hollywood; Mrs. Olson of Glendale, Mrs. W. J. Neelands, Mrs. Nelson, Mrs. Laura Post, Mrs. Fern, Mrs. MacIntire, and Miss Mills, of Torrance. Mrs. Wm. Booth, Mrs. R. S. Fisherly and Mrs. Harvel Guttentfelder will have charge of the November luncheon.
