Friday and Saturday

REMODELING SALE

MR. RAPPAPORT Says:

We would indeed be ungrateful if we did not express our appreciation for the wonderful patronage the local people have given us in this the GREATEST SALE IN OUR HISTORY;—and we want to thank you all for your splendid cooperation in reducing our stocks preparatory to remodeling our store.

The sale has been a great success, of course,—not so much in actual cash-drawers profits, as that was not the object of the sale,—but we know the values we have given will return to us a thousand fold in that more valuable (if less tangible) profit, i. e., YOUR GOOD WILL. We thank you.

SAM RAPPAPORT.

When the doors are locked Saturday night, November 20, Rappaport's will have ended the greatest sale in their mercantile history in Torrance. Starting last Saturday with a rush of early shoppers, the crowds have continued to come all week. But in spite of the heavy buying, we find that lines are still practically complete and customers who have delayed their visits until the last two days (Friday and Saturday) are sure to find what they desire.
