Wurlitzer Opens Torrance Store; Take Year Lease

Big Music Co. Selects Torrance as Trading Hub of Area

Harold Rasmussen, Torrance manager, announced yesterday that the Rudolph Wurlitzer Company, nationally known manufacturers, jobbers and retailers of musical instruments, has taken a year's lease on the store at the corner of El Prado and Sartori, soon to be vacated by the Torrance Toggery. The lease was put through by J. C. Smith of the Torrance Investment Company.

The Wurlitzer company is the largest organization of its kind in the world, and is establishing 27 stores in Southern California.

The company has been operating for 200 years. Its products include all kinds of musical instruments from pipe organs to flutes. The company makes, wholesales and retails organs, pianos, phonographs, radio sets, band and orchestra instruments. So strong is the company financially that it handles all its own contracts without discounting any paper.

Mr. Rasmussen, who has taken

Popcorn Man Will Take Subscriptions for All Magazines

Joe Stevens, popcorn man, whose stand is located in front of the First National Bank, announces that he is taking subscriptions for magazines. "Magazine" subscriptions make fine Christmas presents that last all through the year," said Mr. Stevens. The Herald is pleased to make this announcement.

Masonic Lodge To Elect on Friday

Members of Torrance lodge of Masons are reminded that the annual election will be held Friday evening, Dec. 3, preceded by a dinner at 6:30 p. m.

Mrs. James H. Milburn and Miss Doris Woods, of Andree avenue, were Long Beach visitors Friday.

up residence at 1924 Andree avenue, said that the company has selected Torrance for a permanent branch store because officials of the organization believe Torrance the center of this trading district. "Torrance," he said, "is geographically located as the commercial hub of this territory. After a survey of the area and the future of Torrance our company decided to secure a lease here."

Torrance Beats Lawndale Team In Benefit Tilt

Nate Groenke Enlivens Program As Locals Win by 8 to 1 Score

Before a large crowd Torrance defeated Lawndale Sunday by a score of 8 to 1. The game was played for the benefit of the American Legion and was ably advertised by Nate Groenke, new commander of the Bert S. Crossland Post, who also made the afternoon more merry by staging a comedy stunt on the diamond.

Two Women Hurt As Car Overturns

Mrs. Mary Jessome is recovering from rather severe injuries received last Tuesday when the car in which she was driving with Mrs. J. V. Murray skidded and overturned on the wet pavement.

Both women were pinned under the car, but managed to free themselves. Mrs. Murray was slightly cut.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Fitch of 221st street entertained Mrs. Fitch's cousin, Mrs. Lizzie Killey, of San Diego, for Thanksgiving and the weekend.

Sisters of Local Teachers Expires

Funeral services were conducted at Anaheim Wednesday afternoon for Mrs. Edna Mills Curtis, who died Friday in that city.

Mrs. Curtis, formerly a teacher in the Fifteenth Street School of San Pedro, is a sister of Miss Irene Mills of Miller street, Lomita, a member of the school faculty at Torrance, and a cousin of Mrs. Ethel Lee Willis of Narbonne High School faculty. Another sister, Mrs. Irma Davis, arrived in Anaheim from Tennessee Wednesday morning.

Besides her husband, Floyd Curtis, a 3-year-old son survives Mrs. Curtis.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred B. Dunn of the Breakers, Long Beach, were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Brady Wolfe.
