Priscilla Dean In Star Picture At the Torrance

"Outside the Law" Opens Week's Program of Feature Films

Priscilla Dean is said to have reached the height of her beauty and popularity in Todd Browning's famous crook melodrama, "Outside the Law," in which Lon Chaney played the role of a man who has been embittered by the apparent injustice of the world. But even a woman as abandoned to crime as "Silky Mol" may have her beauty, personality and talent were the vehicle of inward rancor, for the soul of the girl has been embittered by the apparent injustice of the world. But even a woman as abandoned to crime as "Silky Mol" may have her beauty, personality and talent were the vehicle of inward rancor, for the soul of the girl has been embittered by the apparent injustice of the world.

In addition to Priscilla Dean and Lon Chaney the cast includes Ruth Lewis, Wheeler Oakman, E. A. Warren, Stanley Goethals, Melbourne MacDowell, and Wilton Taylor.

The trials and woes of a motion picture "extra" are humorously depicted in the opening scenes of "The Texas Streak," the Universal Jewel starring Hoot Gibson, which comes to the Torrance Theatre Saturday.

The opening of the story finds Gibson as a motuful extra man stranded by his unsympathetic movie troupe in the wilds of Arizona because he has foolishly lost his railroad ticket home in a dice game. From there the story develops into all manner of excitement, and scenes of humorous things happen to the clever and popular star. "The Texas Streak" was written and directed by Lynn Reynolds, who made Gibson's "Chip of the Flying U," and "Combat" and "Prisoners of the Storm" with House Peters.

Norma Shearer—vaudeville star. This is the latest role of the charmer of "His Secretary," "The Warning Sex" and other recent screen successes. Miss Shearer plays the feminine half of a song-and-dance act in "Upstage," her new Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer vehicle, coming Sunday and Monday to the Torrance Theatre. Oscar Shaw, vaudeville celebrity of note, plays the other half of the team in the lulling comedy romance, which Monte Bell directed from the story by Walter De Leon. It is a vivid tale of life "behind the scenes" in vaudeville, with Dorothy Phillips, Ward Crane and other notable players in the cast.

What should a newly-rich couple do who have a butler who is better mannered than they are? Frisbie Friganza and Barney Gilmore, playing these roles in "Almost a Lady," don't know, and to avoid making a dreadful mistake they bow and scrape to the butler. Finally the servant becomes so obnoxious that the husband forgets his new manners and ousts him. "Almost a Lady," which will be on view at the Torrance Theatre next Tuesday, is a Metropolitan production directed by E. Mason Hopper. Marie Prevost is the star and Harrison Ford plays the leading man's role. George K. Arthur is featured.

Victrola Girl Heads Orpheum Bill For Week

Hundredth Anniversary of Vaudeville Brings Un- usual Program

Vaudeville centennial year, which started this week, promises to bring some of the outstanding vaudeville attractions of the world to the Orpheum, for, starting Sunday, Dec. 12, another exceptional bill is scheduled to appear. Heading the new show is beautiful Aileen Stanley, "The Victrola Girl." Miss Stanley has just returned from several London engagements, where her beauty, personality and talent were the talk of the theatregoing public. She brings many new and novel song offerings for this appearance. Another unusual feature will be the appearance of the two comedy successes, William and Joe Mandel, "Quiet, Please," and Theodore and Charles Foy, Eddie Foy's oldest son in vaudeville, who calls himself "Eddie Foy's Pride and Joy"; the Four Foy's, the quartet of younger Foy children; Owen McGivern, the noted protean actor, in a sketch from Dickens' "Bill Sikes"; and "Graceland" and "Theodore in 'Night of Love,'" with Julene Carter, Helen Ruth, Chester Bright, and John Torina. A special added attraction will be the comedy surprise, "The Waiver," in which various artists on the bill will take part.

TOWNE ALKE "Just for Fun" By RAS BERRY

Ted McVay down to Earl and Ted's he up and got married and the boys was joshing him the other day about how much it costs for groceries and etc. and Ted he says well I am feeding everybody in Torrance on credit anyway and one more won't make much difference.

As per usual Mr. Spud Murphy picked the loser to win and this time it was U. S. C. that he picked to beat Notre Dame and the dumb part of it is that yrs. truly went and done the same thing and I should ought to of known better than to pick the team that Spud picks.

The taxes being due Monday wasn't so bad when you had that Sat. game to think about.

Virginia Watson she says to me I seen a friend of yours up to L. A. and he had a big red overcoat on and I says who was he and she says Santa Claus. Gee Whiz.

Mrs. Geo. Proctor she left a big doll over to our house and Mrs. Brady Wolfe she wanted it to use down to the Relief Bazaar and so they come and got it and after they took it to the bazaar why they found a wad of gum in his ear and Mrs. Wolfe says she is sore at me for putting gum in Charlie's ear and I says well Charlie was sleeping in the room with me and I sometimes say things in my sleep that no child should hear so hence the gum and when the bazaar was over why they brought Charlie back and they was some vestiges of gum in his other ear so I guess somebody put it in during the bazaar so he wouldn't hear the matronly gossip.

Well air here is a good one on Mrs. Jawn McMillan. She and Mrs. Dilley and Mrs. Joe Cook they belong to a card party and the card party was gonna meet up to Ontario so Mrs. McMillan calls up the other two and says I will drive you to the card party so one says oh it is today and Mrs. Mac says sure it is today so they drove up there and when they got there why the card party was a week from the day they got there and how Mrs. D. and Mrs. C. did razz Mrs. Mac, which I can't understand how she could of made such a mistake but if it had of been her husband why I could understand that all right. It is 120 miles up to Ontario and back. Mrs. Mac ain't talking about it very much, but Mrs. Dilley and Mrs. Cook is though.

Well Si Rappaport is located in his new store on Sartori now next to the bank and Si says he is afraid he will catch cold being so close to all them drafts.

They was a music store there before Si moved in so Si says with the bank next door and the music store precedin him why the place oughta be used to notes. Ed Nelson the new cashier at the 1st. Nat'l is a music fan and he says anybody who will set all afternoon and watch a football game is fulla grones. You would of thought anyway he would of gone to the Coliseum last Sat. to watch his fellow countryman Knute Rockne's team do its stuff. Ed oughta be reported to the Swedish ambassador.

And him liking music so much and recalling what Si said maybe he is a banker because of his fondness for notes. He takes a lot of interest in 'em.

'I'll say he does.
