IN PARTNERSHIP WITH THE PUBLIC

RESOLVED

That we will strive to give even greater values to our patrons during 1927. That we will not change our policy, but will continue as we have during the past twelve years, to employ only clean, healthy men and women to handle the foodstuffs which go from our stores to your table. This is not new with us but has been our policy of years' standing.

That we will continue to be truthful in our advertising and that we will not be too boastful about the great growth of our business, but will continue to serve and advertise, to the end that we shall hope to continue to grow as rapidly in the future as we have in the past.

That we shall continue to sell good foodstuffs and give the greatest values possible to our customers for the money they spent with us; and will not enter into any misleading advertising schemes to sell premiums, hardware, notions, camouflaged as gifts, which must be added to the price the consumer pays.

That we will continue to give full weight, honest values, and in addition to serving the public with foodstuffs, serve them to our best possible ability with courtesy, service, cleanliness and kindness, and that we will place our greatest efforts toward the upbuilding of good will and its safeguarding and cultivation.

That we will never mention our competitors in any disparaging manner, and that we will conduct our business in such a clean, wholesome way as to win and hold their admiration and respect.

Our last resolve is that 1927 will be a bigger, better and greater year in every respect than any previous year we have been in business and we have the pledged loyalty of our hundreds of employes to accomplish this end.
