

Harbor City Notes

Mrs. Richard Myerscough entertained at her home on 25th Street Friday night in honor of the eleventh birthday of her daughter, Betty. The rooms were beautifully decorated with cut flowers. The decorations of table and birthday cake were carried out in blue and yellow. The evening was passed with games and music. Late in the evening refreshments of sandwiches, cake, punch, nuts and candy were served to the following guests: Winifred Mulken, Ida Evans, Ruth Bally, Ruth Smith, Avice Chilton, Rowena Balding, Helen Johnson, Helen Clark, Ruth Todd, Dolly Doney, Lloyd and Gordon Jones, Mr. and Mrs. George Myerscough, Nellie, Phyllis and Walter Myerscough, Christina and Billy Myerscough, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Myerscough, Mr. and Mrs. William Myerscough, Mrs. J. Mulken, Mrs. Charles Clark, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Myerscough, Miss Betty was the recipient of many beautiful presents.

Sam Daranasky of 252nd Street had the misfortune to have the right leg broken above the knee recently, while he was unloading a team of mules. Daranasky was taken to Seaside Hospital, Long Beach, where he is resting as well as could be expected. He was employed by the Shell Oil Company.

Several members of the Parent-Teachers Association served a hot luncheon Friday noon to the school children. Proceeds from these sales are applied to the organization funds. Mrs. C. Beck, chairman, was assisted by Mrs. A. Stull and Mrs. C. Clark.

Ninety-two children from the rooms of Mrs. Scheffer and Mrs. French were the guests of the Parent-Teachers Association on Thursday, when a party was given to the room bringing in most members, during the P.-T. membership drive. The two rooms brought in the same number of members, and were entertained in the Auditorium, where games were played, cakes and punch were served. Mrs. Roy Wood, membership chairman, was assisted by Mrs. H. Higgs and Mrs. J. Mulken. The membership of Harbor City P.-T. A. is now 153.

Misses Edna Higgs and Gladys Ramsey proved very charming hostesses, when they served dinner to 15 members of the Kimonhon group Camp Fire Girls, Harbor City, at the home of Mrs. H. Higgs, Wednesday evening. The table was decorated with carnations and roses. Those present were Cora Wademeier, Margaret Grier, Ida Evans, May Semmon, Mary Osis, Virginia Turner, Delphina Borgoria, Bernice Heanerson, Teresa Fisher, Juanita Pettit, Louisa Terino, Besnie Williams, Edna Higgs, Gladys Ramsey and their guardian, Miss Lillian Stevens.

Miss Lynn and her room, B5-B6 entertained the 42 graduates in the school Auditorium Friday afternoon. Games were played and refreshments of cakes and punch were served.

Members of the Harbor City Rose

Club gathered at the home of Mrs. C. Jones, 254th Street, on Wednesday night, where cards, film and 500, were the diversions of the evening. Mrs. Fred Doan was awarded the prize for high score for the ladies and W. Hodge made high score for gentlemen. At the close of the evening refreshments were served to Mr. and Mrs. T. Tismarsh, Mr. and Mrs. F. Doan, Mrs. Geo. Myerscough, Mrs. H. Chalton, Mrs. J. Mulken, Mr. and Mrs. Ames, Mr. and Mrs. W. Myerscough, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Thompson, Mrs. Ray Wood, Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Balding, Mrs. C. Clark, Mr. and Mrs. Smith of Torrance; Mr. and Mrs. W. Hedice of San Pedro; Mrs. Nellie Fry, Howard M. Hubbell, C. F. King, Mrs. C. Feltow of Tomona.

The hostesses for the evening were Mesdames C. Jones, J. Mulken and M. Thompson.

Mrs. J. Mulken, president of the local Parent-Teachers Association, and Mrs. A. Aspitte, attended the President Conference of Section D, held at Gardena Elementary School Friday. Mrs. J. Shuey, councillor of Section D presided.

Harbor City Elementary School opened the second semester with eleven new pupils, and a total enrollment of 324. Mrs. Isabel Osting has been assigned to the development room in place of Miss Lillian Stevens, who resigned to take up duties with the Camp Fire Girls in Long Beach.

Members of the Harbor City Faculty spent a very pleasant evening Friday, January 28, at the home of Mrs. Kerr, 2414 West View, Los Angeles. Mrs. Kerr formerly the school nurse, served a delicious dinner and the evening was spent in games, singing and chats. The honor guests, Miss Lillian Stevens, and the new bride, Mrs. Scheffer (nee Miss Bally) each received a gift from the Harbor City school faculty as did the hostess. Members and guests of the faculty present were Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Keams, Mr. and Mrs. Loring, Mr. and Mrs. J. Scheffer, Mr. and Mrs. Kerr, Mr. and Mrs. French, Mr. and Mrs. Merkel, Mrs. L. Verrill, Mrs. Spencer, Mrs. Taylor, Mrs. Jackson, Miss Julia Lynne, Miss Helen Smith, Miss Lillian Stevens, Mr. Leeke, Miss R. Michaels, Miss L. G. Jordan, Leland Stevens and Donald Pugh.

Scout Troops Will Attend Meeting

An interesting Lincoln's Day service will be held at Central Evangelical church next Sunday evening, February 6, at 7:30 o'clock. The Boy Scouts of the Three Torrance troops will be there with their leaders, their colors, their uniforms and all. Members of each troop will have an interesting part in the program. The boys showed at their scout rally last week that they have some public speakers among them. The Scouts will also sing a patriotic song or two. The pastor, Mr. Zeller, will speak on the life and work of Abraham Lincoln. There will be good singing. It should be a helpful and inspiring gathering. It should make those who attend better men and better citizens. A cordial invitation is extended to the public to attend the meeting.
