ROTARY ANNS ENJOY LUNCHEON TUESDAY

The February luncheon was beautifully arranged by Mrs. Norman Leake, Mrs. Ray McFarland, and Mrs. Ben Lingenfelter.

The decorations were carried out in a patriotic motif of red, white and blue, with place cards of red hearts, and American flags as favors. The flowers were red carnations.

During the luncheon the ladies were entertained by the Torrance High School Glee Club under the direction of Miss Lois Lingenfelter.

Mrs. Kapp of Barker Brothers gave a very entertaining talk on home-building and home-furnishing, and displayed beautiful samples of draperies appropriate for the entire home.

Guests for the day were Mrs. W. J. Neelands, Mrs. W. H. Stanger, Mrs. James Moore, of Torrance; Mrs. W. P. Ferry, of Hilldale, Mich.; and Mrs. J. C. Roberts and Mrs. Kapp, of Los Angeles.

The committee in charge of the March luncheon is Mrs. J. W. McMillan, Mrs. Geo. Neill, and Mrs. Lovelle Ott.

During the afternoon a number of the guests enjoyed bridge and 4 o'clock tea.

WOMEN'S CLUB WILL LUNCH WEDNESDAY

The Women's Club will hold its February luncheon at 12:30 Wednesday, Feb. 16. After the luncheon the regular program meeting will be held. A good program has been arranged.

WOMEN'S CLUB JUNIOR AUXILIARY THRIVING

Community singing and the reading of a play were enjoyed at the meeting of the Junior Auxiliary of the Women's Club Monday night. Twenty-six members were present to enjoy the delicious pot luck dinner served before the meeting of the Auxiliary.

Members of the Auxiliary are busy preparing a skit to be given at the senior club's minstrel show in April.

The Auxiliary is filling a much-needed place in the lives of its members, giving them as it does entertainment while teaching them the value of community service.

METHODIST LADIES' AID IN ALL-DAY MEET

Last Tuesday the Ladies' Aid Society of the Methodist Church held an all-day meeting in the church parlors. Quilt-tying and other work was accomplished in the morning hours and laid aside at noon, when a pot luck lunch was served cafeteria style.

After a recess the regular business session was called at 2 p. m., Mrs. Guy Mowry presiding.

BY JINGO I SURE AM AGOIN' TO IT

Everyone enjoys a good party. Well, here's your chance, as the Torrance Women's Club is giving a costume dance Tuesday, Feb. 22, at 8:30 at the clubhouse. Unique prizes will be given to those wearing the funniest and the prettiest costumes. For those who do not dance there will be cards. Any type of costume is permissible.

Milt Gardner's Merry Makers are to furnish the music. A prize waltz is one of the features of the evening. Come in costume and get the spirit of the party. Tickets for sale at Gardner Music Company, or from members of the February committee.

CHURCH WOMEN ENJOY LUNCHEON AT LONG BEACH

The ladies of the Methodist Church drove on a caravan to Long Beach last Thursday to the home of Mrs. Severns, 3024 East First street, where a delicious three-course luncheon awaited them. Places were marked for 39 guests at the beautifully appointed tables, where the color scheme was carried out in rose pink carnations.

The afternoon was very happily spent in doing fancy work and renewing old acquaintances. Mr. and Mrs. Severns are members of the Torrance church, their former home having been at 1307 Anapola avenue.

GETS SURPRISE WHEN OLD FRIENDS CALL

Mrs. Andrew Hamilton of East Torrance was pleasantly surprised recently when two old friends, Mrs. Margaret Scott and daughter, Mrs. Christine Prins, of New Kensington, Pa., called on her.

Mrs. Prins, the wife of Ensign W. C. E. Prins, Annapolis '26, of the U. S. S. California, is entertaining her mother for the winter at the Prins home in San Pedro.

When Mrs. Scott learned that the Hamiltons lived in Torrance she and her daughter hurried over and had a pleasant time talking over old times and friends.
