

Public School Night Here on Wednesday, 27th

Vierling Kersey, Well Known Authority, to Deliver Address

Torrance will observe Public School Week at the school auditorium on Wednesday, April 27, with a matinee which will feature the largest ever held indoors in Torrance. Vierling Kersey, assistant superintendent of the Los Angeles school system, will deliver the principal address. Mrs. Kersey is a speaker of wide reputation and eminently qualified to speak on such an occasion.

Attorney Jensen In New Offices

Increased demand for his services as an attorney has prompted J. R. Jensen to move to larger quarters. His new offices are next to the Bank of Italy in the quarters formerly occupied by the Standard Machine Company clerical department.

COURT NOTES

All persons arrested in the recent raid at the United Cigar Store conducted by Ben Rappaport were found not guilty of gambling charges before Justice of the Peace Patterson in Lomita last Thursday. The cases were dismissed for lack of evidence. The men who were discharged included all who pleaded guilty to DWI charges.

Kiwanis Meeting Subject Will Be Fire Prevention

The Kiwanis Club of Torrance will devote its program tomorrow to the subject of fire prevention. W. S. Minor of the Long Beach fire department will speak and members of the Torrance Volunteer Fire Department, under the direction of Chief Ben Hajnebrink, will stage several demonstrations of first-aid work and flame-quenching. Charles Schultz, president of the local Kiwanis Club, said yesterday: "Kiwanis International, with more than 100,000 members and 1650 clubs in the United States and Canada, designated April as Fire Prevention Month and our program Friday is part of an international observance of the importance of fire prevention. Our Torrance fire department has made a great record in fire prevention education and we hope that the public will join with Kiwanis in constantly increasing consideration of this important work."

LEAVE FOR EAST

Mr. and Mrs. George W. Neill and son George left Monday for the east. Mr. Neill will go to New Jersey for the funeral of an aunt who died last week. Mrs. Neill and her son will stop at York, Neb.

Gilbert Ingmire Dies Before Hearing of His Son's Death

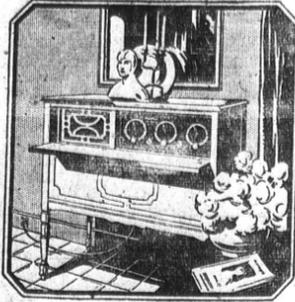

Gilbert B. Ingmire passed away from his bedside when the fatal auto crash occurred on Harbor boulevard. Mrs. Bertha Ingmire, who was seriously injured in the accident, is still in a critical condition at the San Pedro General Hospital. Her condition is reported as slightly weak, and his son was returning from his bedside when the fatal auto crash occurred on Harbor boulevard.

Women's Club To Tour Area Before Meeting April 20

A big day has been planned by the Women's club for Wednesday, April 20. It is to be a press luncheon and reciprocity day combined. Luncheon will be served at 12 noon. The price will be 50 cents instead of 35 cents. All members desiring to attend this luncheon must make their reservations by 6 Monday evening, April 18, either with Mrs. W. H. Gilbert, 234-W, or Mrs. J. F. Stone, 98-M. Leaving the clubhouse at 1 o'clock in machines driven by members, the club will drive through Torrance out Arlington to Lomita, up around the Palos Verdes Hills, down by the golf club, and back through the edge of Torrance and to the clubhouse, where a good program has been prepared for the afternoon. The speakers will be Blanche Freund Austin of Redondo, who has been editor of the Federation News and a vice-president of the national federation. Mrs. Austin will have for her subject "Publicity, All Dressed Up and No Place to Go." The second speaker will be Miss Una E. Fowler of Los Angeles, a teacher in the Manual Arts High School, whose subject is "Beyond the Alps Lies Italy." Miss Fowler will bring with her pictures of Italy and a vocalist who will give some Italian songs.

HEALTH

Our Most Precious Possession

Piggly Wiggly is a stickler for cleanliness because the theme of modern life is to be careful of one's most precious possession—health. If the health is properly safeguarded, and clean food is the most important safeguard of good health, then there is no reason for sickness or disease interfering with a happy life. Piggly Wiggly supplies about one pound in five of the food sold in grocery stores, to the Los Angeles district public, and is cautious of its reputation for cleanliness with this vast army of people.
