Spring has really come to the Long Beach amusement zone! Every day until Sunday, May 1, which has been set as the official day for the spring opening, sees new changes in the many concessions on the "Walk of a Thousand Lights."

Fresh paint and fixtures, many new amusements, all add to the clean spring campaign which the Long Beach Amusement League is carrying on, to give the many thousands of daily visitors the best that they can find in clean pleasure.

Sunday will be spent in bathing, frolicking on the zone and beach, and eating. As darkness falls fireworks will be shot from the end of the Silver Spray pier. A new and novel collection of fireworks has been obtained for this important occasion.

Besides the usual Roman candles and showers of bright stars, there will be gay May baskets with huge flowers bursting and lighting the sky. Those who have never seen a fireworks display over the dark waves have missed a real thrill. The fireworks will continue for 35 minutes steady.

This rent of Sunday will open the spring and summer season which is one of the most important in Long Beach. The next affair will be the rowboat marathon, and will probably be followed by the bathing beauty parade and Fourth of July carnival.

Bandits Steal Auto Here, Use It in Holdups, Len Sanders' Coupe Figures in Double Case of Banditry

(From Lomita News) E. "Len" Sanders left his Dodge coupe in Clayburn Davis' driveway on Oak street about midnight Monday. Some time between then and 6 o'clock the coupe was stolen. Sanders reported the theft to local officers, who in turn notified county officers.

At 9:30 Tuesday night three young men, driving Sanders' coupe, held up one Williams of Inglewood on Oak street and relieved him of $10. Williams noted the license number.

At 10:05 the same three men, still in Sanders' car, held up Frank Hoernke and a woman companion in the Palos Verdes Hills, about two miles from the Palos Verdes Estates, took $15 and Hoernke's Oldsmobile coupe. The couple walked to the estates and reported the holding.

The bandits abandoned Sanders' coupe in the hills, where it was discovered by officers, and the Oldsmobile was found Wednesday at WALTERIA. One of the new trick ignition locks balked them at WALTERIA. Hoernke had his keys in his pocket.

An overnight bathing suit and a $65 Kodak were still in Sanders' car when found.

A holdup in Culver City Monday is believed to have been committed by the same gang, as descriptions given by the three victims tally.

Shortcake Taste Gets Lads in Bad, Strawberries don't look so good now to some six or eight half-grown lads who were ordered to "stick 'em up" Tuesday night as they were about to raid a Jap's strawberry patch.

The boys planned their raid in the presence of the new "law," a strabner to them all, and he hid him to the patch and waited.

The culprits were severely reprimanded by Judge Patterson and released on six months' probation.
