Fun and Frolic Reign Supreme at Huge Fiesta

anged a booking that compares with the vaudeville programs to be found in any high class theatre. There are juveniles and dancers—ah, that Blackbottom!—and clowns and musicians. An orchestra will be there to do the honors every night, all night if necessary. Closing time will be sleepy time, and 'tis predicted that the Sandman will be most conspicuous by his absence during the five Fiesta days.

Outside the big tent the long midway will exert its entertainment appeal. Funmaking features here will combine all the best features of a county fair, a string of circus sideshows and an up-to-date amusement park. The features have been carefully selected by the entertainment committee, and nothing objectionable has been allowed to creep in. Like care has been taken to inject a double dose of fun into every foot of the midway's length.

The Fiesta will continue from Tuesday, August 30, to Saturday, September 3.

A feature planned for community comfort and service is a booth to be operated by the Chamber of Commerce. Here Fiesta visitors will find chairs and a restful nook to recuperate after touring the big tent. Arrowhead water for the service booth will be furnished by the Chancellor-Ganfield Midway Oil Company.

Painted Design Greatly Enlivens These Coolie Coats and Blouses

Where are you going, my pretty maid? "I am going a-yachting, sir," she most likely answers! To prove that she has tuned her costume to the occasion, she holds to the sleeve of her blouse, which, as you will observe, according to the center figure in this picture, is hand painted, showing a nautical scene of a proud ship sailing over some very blue waves—all this in the name of fashion. It is really quite exciting the way white sails speed over wild waves pictured with paint and brush, across the ends of one's scarf, or perhaps upon the front of one's blouse, or on one's necktie or kerchief square for the neck. If a tennis enthusiast, it will be an alert figure posing a racket in midair which adorns her summer blouse, or a golf player in action, if such be the event. Considering the vogue for hand-painted apparel, it behooves the artist, either amateur or otherwise, to lose no time in getting out palette and brush preparatory to taking up the fascinating pastime of embellishing frock, blouse, smock, coolie coat, hat and also parasol with wonderful birds of paradise, or exotic flowers, or if your taste runs that way, flamboyant modernistic motifs. And would you believe it, some modern maidens there are who, dotting on unique and pretty underthings, are decorating their step-ins and their nightgowns with butterflies, birds and flowers. If there is one place more than another where bizarre hand painting finds placement, it is on the back of one's coolie coat, which, by the way, is extremely popular either for boulevard or beach. Students at the art school, too—what delight they are taking in wearing coolie coats which are enlivened with gay painting a la chinoise. The picture shows two such pretty coats adorned in this way. Now that wide ribbons trim so many hats, they are frequently hand painted with garlands of flowers or quaint figures. It is also quite the fashion to paint directly on the straw, felt or crocheted visca hat. (Copyright, 1927, by Western Newspaper Union)

Wife Savers

By NELLIE MAXWELL

By NELLIE MAXWELL Pleasing Foods

Fish, to the table by the direct route from sea, lake or stream is of course the ideal way of serving them, but modern methods of preserving make it possible to obtain canned fish and sea foods of all kinds. A few cans of your favorite variety will add greatly to your comfort when unexpected company drops in. Fish in the can is more expensive, but has very little if any waste, and the labor of preparing is all done.

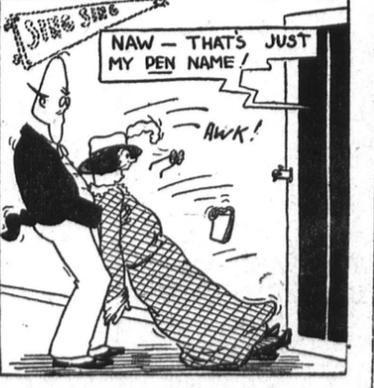

Canned fish roe very nearly equals the fresh and is admirably adapted to the making of salads and croquettes. Well seasoned roe, brushed with olive oil and baked with a tomato sauce over it is unusually good.

Smoked Salmon on Toast—Cut strips of salmon into very thin slices and broil delicately. Have ready rounds of toasted bread, buttered, lay on the slices of salmon and garnish with hard cooked eggs. Serve with string beans.

Few know the value of nuts as food; they are highly nutritious. A few of some kind or other should be found in every luncheon basket.

Roe Salad—Empty one can of fish roe in a thin cheesecloth bag and drop into boiling water for ten minutes. To prepare the water add a bay leaf, a teaspoonful of lemon juice three cloves; boil fifteen minutes. When cooked drain and set the roe aside to chill, pouring French dressing over it. Let stand for an hour and serve with water-cress.

Safeway Managers to Get Upward of Million Dollars

Upward of one million dollars will be distributed during 1927 by the Safeway Stores to one thousand partner-managers in the form of additional compensation and as a result of greatly increased sales throughout the big grocery system following the adoption of the plan of rewarding faithful employees for meritorious work. This statement was made today by Edward Dale, vice president of Safeway Stores, who declared that the company has completed the distribution of $226,000 to partner-managers, representing their earnings for the second quarter of 1927. "This sum," said Mr. Dale, "would indicate that the company will pay a million dollars or more to its store managers this year in the form of additional compensation and aside from salaries. It is a fitting reward to these men who have given their faithful and untiring efforts to the success of the Safeway Stores. "The partner-store manager plan was originated by President M. B. Skaggs and put into effect the first of this year. It is the general belief of everybody connected with the Safeway Stores that this plan has proved the greatest factor in building a solid foundation for a permanent and profitable business. "Aside from the fact that the Safeway Stores comprise more than 1,000 partner managers, the company has to date sold nearly five thousand shares of common stock to store managers and other employees at $200 per share, when the market quotations of the stock has ranged between $260 and $300 per share. While it is true that several thousand Safeway employees have greatly benefited through our plan of having our personnel grow with the business, it is also well to point out that no officers or executives of the entire Safeway system have participated in or benefited by this under-the-market stock offer. "During the first seven months of 1927 the company added 116 new units, including 90 stores and 35 meat markets. Construction work on our new $500,000 bakery which will be one of the best equipped in the west, was started recently and the bakery will be in operation by January 1 next according to present plans."
