MISS PLUMA CLEMONS WEDS G. C. WHITE

Attended by relatives and a few intimate friends, Miss Pluma Claire Clemens, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lincoln Clemens of Long Beach, was wedded last Friday noon at Riverside to Mr. Grover C. Whyte of Torrance. The ceremony in the attractive chapel at Mission Inn was performed by Rev. Francis A. Zeller, former pastor of the Central Evangelical Church of Torrance and now of San Bernardino. The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Cora Clemens. W. Harold Kingsley was best man. Others in attendance were Mrs. Edith Carney, Mr. Fred Rice of Long Beach, Mrs. Francis A. Zeller of San Bernardino and Mrs. W. Harold Kingsley of Torrance. After the ceremony a dainty luncheon was served at the Mission Inn. Mr. and Mrs. Whyte left by automobile for San Francisco where they board a ship for Vancouver. They will spend their honeymoon in the Canadian Rockies, visiting Lake Louise and Banff, returning to southern California about Oct. 1.

BEN F. COMRADA WEDS HOLLYWOOD GIRL

Miss Helen Langroise, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Langroise of Lexington avenue, Hollywood and Ben F. Comrada were married Sunday morning at 9, at the bride's home. Mrs. Raymond Parkhurst of Idaho and Emory Heaver of Los Angeles attended Miss Langroise and Mr. Comrada. The Episcopal ceremony was read in the presence of relatives and intimate friends.

Miss Comrada is a graduate of the University of Idaho, where she met Mr. Comrada when he was coaching. During the past year she had done secretarial work in a Los Angeles city school.

"Ben" who has coached at Narbonne high school the past two years, is popular with teachers, pupils and parents. He was in charge of the community playgrounds at Torrance this summer.

Mr. and Mrs. Comrada left immediately after the wedding ceremony for San Francisco and Yosemite. They will return in time for Ben to resume his duties at Narbonne, and will make their home in Long Beach, temporarily.

MRS. EARL BUTLER IS GIVEN SURPRISE

NUPTIALS SOLEMNIZED AT GARDENA HOME

Miss Catherine Elise Young and Clarence William Chamblis were married last Saturday evening at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. Lewis Peters of 1210 Spencer street, Gardena.

The ceremony was read by Dr. John R. McNeill, of the Bible Institute, in the presence of sixty guests. Dr. Bruce Gordon Kingsley, noted organist of Los Angeles rendered the wedding march.

A floral arch banked with ferns and palms formed a beautiful setting for the ceremony.

The bride, attired in white satin and net, with Brussels lace veil, was attended by her sister, Maxine Young, in peach tulle, bouffant. Their little niece, Barbara Jean Jackson was flower girl and made a charming picture in flowered silk. S. J. Jackson attended the groom.

Chamblis of England, Alabama, and has been in California about one year. He is employed with the Julian Petroleum Company at Long Beach. They will make their home in Gardena.

Dempsey-Sharkey Fight Films to Be Shown at Torrance

Did Dempsey foul Sharkey as the Boston pugilist contends? That question will probably never be answered. But those who are interested in the subject—and all others who like to witness fistieuffs—will have an opportunity to witness the heavyweight match on the screen at the Torrance theatre next Tuesday and Wednesday nights. The fight films have been secured by the management of the theatre at considerable expense, so that local patrons may have a look at Dempsey just prior to his bout with Champion Gene Tunney at Chicago.

BLAZE AT FIESTA

A short circuit in the wiring at the Fiesta started a blaze last Friday evening that caused damage to the amount of $100 before it was extinguished.
