SOCIETY

FIRST WEDDING BELLS RING AT NEW M. E. PARSONAGE
A very beautiful ceremony was solemnized on Saturday evening, Oct. 22, at 7 o'clock, when Rev. R. A. Young joined in wedlock, Miss Ethel Sevier of Milwaukee, Wis., and Mr. William Brommer of Torrance. The young couple was attended by friends. The bride wore a lovely gown of navy blue brocade georgette with hat to match. The groom and best man were attired in the conventional dark suit and the maid of honor wore a black velvet gown and a white hat. The mantel was decorated with palms, roses, carnations and maiden-hair fern, and basketed with chrysanthemums. After the ceremony the happy young couple were greeted at the door with a shower of rice, and left to spend the evening with friends. The newlyweds will live in Torrance.

WEE DOYLE PRICE HAS BIRTHDAY PARTY
Doyle Price, 6 years old, had a birthday party Saturday at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Price, 1925 Gramercy avenue.

Twelve young friends had a delightful time at games, with refreshments after.

LADIES OF CHURCH GUESTS TUESDAY
The Ladies' Aid Society of the M. E. Church was delightfully entertained Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Jean Miller, 1712 Martina avenue. Thirty members enjoyed a day of sewing for the bazaar to be held December 1.

At noon the luncheon was served by the hostess assisted by Mrs. Wise, Mrs. Morris, Mrs. Welch, Mrs. Edmonds and Miss Eacker.

During the business session, the report given by the financial secretary, Mrs. Guy Mowry, showed the organization's finances are in a healthy state. The ladies are proud of the fact that all the furniture for the parsonage has been bought and paid for by the society.

Members of the society will assist in serving at the Brotherhood dinners to be held the second Monday of each month.

The next meeting will be held Nov. 5, at the church.

EPWORTH LEAGUE WILL GIVE HOBBO PARTY
"If you bring yourself An' your girlie or your beau An' fix yourself up Like an' of hobo You'll have a lot of fun An' we'll feed you everyone An' when the party's done —Home ya go!"

That was the rhyme scrawled on one side of unique invitations torn from wrapping paper and addressed on the opposite side—much to the obvious annoyance of the postal authorities—and sent to the members of the Methodist Episcopal Epworth League for a Hobbo Party to be staged in the league room at the church next Saturday evening. Refreshments will be served done up in bandanna handkerchiefs tied to long sticks a la genuine hobo style. Guests of honor will be new members.

ENTERTAIN FRIENDS AT CHICKEN DINNER
Mr. and Mrs. John L. Sullivan of 736 Borden avenue entertained their friends Sunday with a delicious chicken dinner. Their guests were Mr. and Mrs. Lersy, Mr. and Mrs. Trabert of Los Angeles; Milton Rissie of Santa Barbara; Mrs. Geo. Seeger of Fullerton; Mr. and Mrs. Lehman of Inglewood; Mr. and Mrs. Bennie Esposito of San Francisco, and Mrs. Mary C. Schneider of Hamilton, Ohio.

LOCAL WOMEN AT DIOCESE MEETING
Rev. and Mrs. H. H. Kelley, Mrs. W. T. Klusman, Mrs. Fred Boice and Mrs. J. H. Milburn represented the Torrance Episcopal church at the session of the fall convocation of the diocese at San Gabriel Tuesday.

The morning session beginning with the Holy Communion with Bishop W. Bertram Stevens officiating, were held in the beautiful little Church of Our Saviour situated back from the road in a grove of trees. A quiet place where one could meditate without the noise of the outer world intruding.

At noon luncheon was served by the women of the church in the parish house. The afternoon sessions were held in the Parish house.

The morning session was given over to talks on the "Every Member Canvass", the speakers being Rev. David Covell of Los Angeles, Rev. Philip Ensey of Hollywood and Dean Beall of St. Paul's Cathedral. The afternoon session was devoted to the missionary work of the diocese. Rev. Leslie Larnard of All Saints church, Pasadena, spoke on the work of the church extension society. Rev. Robert Remmon, the diocesan missionary, told of the various small missions through the diocese and spoke of the needs of some of them, especially the one at Baldwin Park.

Rev. La Pla Smith, city and county missionary, spoke of the work the church is doing at the General Hospital, the County Farm and the Eastside jail.

MR. AND MRS. STONE ENTERTAIN THURSDAY
Mr. and Mrs. Joe Stone of Portola avenue entertained at dinner last Thursday evening in honor of the 30th wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Will Morgan.

Places were indicated for Mr. and Mrs. Morgan; Mrs. Vera McCullin of San Francisco; Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Chase, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Luet of Lomita and Mr. and Mrs. Stone.

PAST NOBLE GRANDS ARE ENTERTAINED
Mrs. Edward Lynch, retiring president and Mrs. E. V. Blackwell entertained the Past Noble Grand's Association at a luncheon Monday at Odd Fellows Temple. Hallow'een colors intermingled with the lode colors, pink and green, were used in decoration of the tables.

During the business session, the following new officers were elected and installed: president, Mrs. John Waite; vice president, Mrs. H. B. Goodrich; secretary-treasurer, Mrs. H. M. Owens.

Present at the meeting were Mrs. E. W. Brumpton, Mrs. H. M. Owens, Mrs. John Waite, Mrs. Sidebotham, Mrs. O. E. Hunt, Mrs. Gregg, of Lomita; Mrs. J. O. Moore, Mrs. Wm. Phillips, Mrs. Lou Freeman, Mrs. George Bertelson, Mrs. Lynch, of Torrance; Mrs. Ellen M. Kaiser, Venice; Mrs. Gensler, St. Joseph, Mo.; and Mrs. E. V. Blackwell of Tacoma, Wash.

EASTERN STAR TO HAVE PROGRESSIVE DINNER
Torrance Chapter, Eastern Star will give a five course progressive dinner on Tuesday, Nov. 15, this date being a postponement from the original plan to hold the dinner on Nov. 3.

The start will be made from Masonic Hall on Sartori avenue at 6 p. m. Cards and other diversions will be offered at the hall after the dinner.

MRS. C. P. ROBERTS BRIDGE HOSTESS
Mrs. C. P. Roberts of West G street, Wilmington, entertained at bridge and five hundred last Friday evening at the first of a series of card parties to be held for the benefit of Lomita Court of Amaranth.

Players who report a delightful evening were Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Brown of San Pedro; Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Skelton, Mrs. Anna Dayries, Mrs. J. H. Quinn, Mrs. Emma Rule, Mrs. Harry Wallace, C. P. Roberts of Wilmington; Mrs. J. O. Moore, of Torrance; Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Peck, Mrs. A. E. Cook, Mrs. Roy Hathaway, Mrs. F. P. Powers, Mrs. L. C. Walker, Mrs. B. A. Beckham, Mrs. Marion Welch, Mrs. Tom Willson, Mrs. W. H. Martin, Mrs. Ed Sidebotham, Miss Helma Greenlund and Hugo F. Schmidt, of Lomita.

LUNCHEON GIVEN AT TELEPHONE OFFICE
The telephone office was the scene of a delightful luncheon Wednesday when the force entertained "P. B. X" operators of Torrance at a Hallow'een motif was carried out in decoration of the room and table.

The affair was arranged by Mrs. Lillian Houn, Miss Margaret Farris, Mrs. F. Lewis Peters and Mrs. Marie Harrison.

Places were indicated for Miss Bath and Miss McCool, Union Tool; Mrs. Gladys Henderson, National Supply; Miss Helen Brown and Miss Elsie Rittmiller, Columbia Steel; Miss A. Merritt, Miss Irene Miller, Pacific Electric; Mrs. Honor E. Jackson, P. B. X supervisor; Miss Ruth Greenlund, chief, Lomita; Fred W. Smith, district commercial manager, and Mrs. Smith; R. N. Patchen, district traffic superintendent; Miss Helma

Greenlund, chief; Mrs. Opal Pearson, Miss Florence Christopher, Mrs. Lillian Rountree, Miss Ruby Geary, Miss Lillian Faulkner, Mrs. Houn, Mrs. Peters, Mrs. Harrison and Miss Farris.

Mrs. Persia Fess Is Honored by O.E.S.
Mrs. Persia K. Fess, junior Past Worth's Magdon of Torrance Chapter, O. E. S., has been appointed district deputy grand matron, and was installed at the grand chapter held in Santa Cruz last week.

Mrs. Fess is the first member of Torrance Chapter to hold an appointment in the grand chapter, and is being congratulated on the honor conferred upon her.

Would You Spend $1.60 to Get $300?
Mr. and Mrs. Freeland of the Columbia Steel Corporation were leaving Torrance. They wanted to sell their furniture rather than ship it. So they spent $1.60 for a classified advertisement in The Torrance Herald and The Lomita News. The paper was issued last Thursday. By Sunday evening all the furniture had been sold for an aggregate of $300 cash. Mr. and Mrs. Freeland had been delighted at the results.

LUTHERAN AID DINNER
The Lutheran Ladies' Aid Society will serve another of their excellent dinners next Wednesday, Nov. 2. Beef a-la-mode will be the piece de resistance. Service will start at 1:30 and continue until 7:30. The affair will be held at the Women's club house on Englewood avenue, and the proceeds will go into the building fund.
