"Meet the Wife" Making Big Hit

"Meet the Wife" has opened the fall season at the Hollywood play house by playing to capacity houses ever since the premiere Monday, October 24.

A flood of reservations from residents of smaller cities throughout Southern California is one of the factors in the unusual attendance, according to the management. In spite of the autumn rains the suburban patronage is increasing unabated, it is said.

The comedy was produced for a limited engagement at the Hollywood Play House. Because of the production to follow, the extension of the run, which seems inevitable because of the heavy advance sale, must be short, it is announced.

Problems of a society woman who finds herself a bigamist form the plot basis of "Meet the Wife." A first husband long thought dead in the great San Francisco earthquake unexpectedly appears as a guest in the household. The situation created throws the audience at every performance into convulsions of laughter.

Francis Underwood, whom all Southern California remembers as "Mrs. Clark" in "Alias the Deacon," and "Lottie Bancroft" in "The Home Towners" is being starred as the society matron. This role is one of the longest on the American stage.

Mr. and Mrs. Forrest J. Young and family of Cota avenue, were guests Sunday of Mr. Young's father, J. B. Young of Glendale.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Dolley and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Dolley dined at the Surf and Sand Club, at Hermosa Beach, Sunday.

Death Valley Film at Lomita

SCENE FROM "DEATH VALLEY"

Elemental in background, yet promising a genuine dramatic story of merit, "Death Valley," the First Division Picture which comes to the Lomita Theatre Sunday and Monday, was made entirely on the shifting sands of that burning desert. I. E. Chadwick produced the film and Paul Powell directed. Carroll Nye, Rada Rae, Raymond Wells, Sam Allen, Grace Lord and Rex the dog have the important roles. Incidentally, Wells wrote the story and personally prepared the adaptation for the screen.

Thursday and Friday the Lomita will feature "Finnegan's Ball" a comedy entitled "1, 2, 3, Kick" and a news reel. "Finnegan's Ball" finds Mack Swain in the leading role. Swain is known wherever Felix cartoon fans will be happy to know that the latest cut film will be shown on Saturday, together with "Blue Blood" and a comedy.

A big double bill will be screened next Tuesday and Wednesday. The headline attractions will be "Simple Sue" a raucous comedy starring Louise Fazenda and Clyde Cook; and "The Climbers." In addition there will be a "Mutt and Jeff" cartoon and a travelogue.

Ned Wayburn and Isa Kremer Will Top Orpheum Bill

The new bill which comes to the Orpheum, Sunday matinee, Nov. 13, will be a gala affair with Ned Wayburn's Variety Show and Miss Isa Kremer sharing stellar honors on a most unusual program.

Ned Wayburn's Variety Show is a lavishly produced offering in which six high-classed vaudevillians take part with assistance of a group of beautiful and well-trained Ned Wayburn proteges. With its twenty scenes, special music and settings this production ranks along with the follies revues which Wayburn has produced. In his group of stars will be found Al and Fanny Stedman, The Four Ortons, Fred Hughes, Mary Horan and the popular Broadway comedian, Charles Irwin, acting as master of ceremonies.

An outstanding feature of the offering will be Ned Wayburn's Minstrel Misses, a lavishly staged scene with many unusual entertainment features. Miss Kremer, who has been such a decided sensation during the current week at the Orpheum, remains for a second week and will offer an entirely new program of ballads and folk-songs.

Clifford and Marlon, and two other Orpheum Circuit features will complete the new bill.
