A feature of the luncheon was the ingenious manger in which the letters P. N. G. appeared on the salad and a cheese dish.

MISS CONKEL BRIDE ON THANKSGIVING

Miss Rosalee Conkel and Homer Morgan were married Thanksgiving morning at the Baptist church, which was beautifully decorated for the occasion. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. W. Green, under the four arches intertwined with roses and vines.

The bride attired in white taffeta with veil and orange blossoms, was given away by her father, J. M. Conkel. The bridesmaids were Miss Maxine Brown, in lavender georgette; Miss Dorothy Darling, in orchid georgette; Miss Kathryn See, in pink georgette; and the bride's sister, Mrs. Homer Bale, in green georgette. The maid of honor, Miss Ruth Beckwith wore a gown of blue georgette. The little flower girl, Margery Page, in French organdy, made a dainty picture. The bride carried a bouquet of sweet peas and yellow rosebuds, and the bridesmaids and maid of honor carried sweet peas.

The groom was attended by his brother, George Morgan; the ushers were Stewart Holland, Homer Bale, Howard Gilliam and Ted Reeves; and little Bobby Tolson carried the ring on a white satin pillow.

Mrs. Charles Ackley played the wedding march and Miss Genevieve Holland sang "O Promise Me," while awaiting the arrival of the bridal party.

Mr. Morgan is the son of Mrs. John B. McCormiskey and is employed at the International Derrick company. Both Mr. and Mrs.

Morgan are graduates of the Torrance high school. They will make their home in Torrance.
